The particular shower curtain highlighted by Sarah James Jazz March ? featuring a picture of the bog in Ashokan Reservoir ? is an enchanting piece that will add a touch of nature to any bathroom. The photograph is printed on one side. The company notes that while polyester offers adequate protection against water, a liner might be necessary for full waterproofness. The photo featured in the shower curtain was taken right outside the entrance to Ashokan Reservoir in Upstate New York. James says, ?The Ashokan Reservoir area is one of my favorite places to photograph, across all seasons. In the spring, it is beautiful to watch the sky open up; the water fills with a lot of lilies, the grass flourishes and the whole area just comes to life. When I chose the photograph to be featured in a shower curtain, I wanted to evoke that bright and hopeful feeling you feel when you are watching nature thrive, and make it accessible to everyone on a daily basis.?

Other notable highlights from Sarah James Jazz Merch include the NYC graffiti-shirts, designed to make a statement with their attitude, and a nature-inspired line of shower curtains and throw pillows. These distinctive designs cater to those seeking art that goes beyond boundaries and makes a lasting impression. The products are also meant to be the perfect gift solution for art enthusiasts, fashion-forward individuals and those in search of distinctive and meaningful presents.
