February 08, 2024

NEW YORK, NY - February 08, 2024 -
Leav & Steinberg LLP, a personal injury law firm located in New York, NY, provides legal services across a wide range of cases, including those involving premises liability, car accidents, transportation accidents, medical malpractice, negligence by organizations, products liability, construction accidents, wrongful death, general negligence, and nursing home negligence. The firm has recently achieved a significant milestone by securing a $3 million settlement in a complex construction accident case, reinforcing its position as a leading construction accident lawyer in Manhattan.

With a team of highly experienced attorneys, Leav & Steinberg LLP is adept at managing construction accident claims, especially those related to scaffolding and ladder incidents. These types of accidents constitute a large segment of workplace injuries in New York and are fraught with complex legal and safety regulations. The law firm?s dedication to its clientele is evident from its meticulous efforts to effectively handle these intricate cases.

The achievement of the $3 million settlement was the result of an exhaustive investigation and assertive representation on behalf of the client who faced challenges with their initial attorney and turned to Leav & Steinberg LLP for support. Despite the complexities of the case, the firm was able to secure a favorable settlement through its determination and expertise.

Edward Steinberg of Leav & Steinberg LLP shared insights on the matter, saying, "When her first attorney came to us and asked us to help, we recognized that the case had issues but with our skill and commitment, we could position the case for an exceptional outcome." This reflects the firm?s unwavering commitment to advocating for their clients? justice, no matter the challenges.

Assessing damages in personal injury cases, such as those involving construction accidents, is a crucial part of the legal service provided. This assessment involves calculating both tangible and intangible losses, including medical bills, lost earnings, and pain and suffering. Leav & Steinberg LLP handles this intricate task with precision and thoughtfulness, ensuring their clients receive the compensation they are entitled to.

The $3 million settlement underscores Leav & Steinberg LLP?s dedication to their clients and their ability to navigate and resolve demanding cases to reach significant outcomes. It also showcases the firm?s legal expertise and their dedication to protecting the rights and well-being of those injured in construction accidents.
