

Sav-On Plumbing Launches Dedicated Slab Leak Repair Services to Combat Rising Phoenix Home Damage

February 28, 2024

GLENDAL, AZ - February 28, 2024 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Sav-On Plumbing, a long-time provider of professional plumbing services in Arizona, has recently announced the inclusion of a dedicated service for detecting and resolving slab leaks to their broad assortment of services in Phoenix. Slab leaks occur in Phoenix-area homes which, if not attended to swiftly and correctly, can cause significant damage, resulting in substantial repair costs, an insurance claim and even potential structural damage.

Predominantly due to their concealed nature beneath the concrete slab foundation of houses, slab leaks present a significant problem in residential plumbing. If not quickly detected and repaired, these leaks can create serious problems. They often go undetected and become apparent only after they cause substantial damage. To avoid often extensive damage to interior cabinets and flooring damage, prompt intervention from experienced professionals is a must.

In order to ensure accurate leak detection, Sav-On Plumbing employs cutting-edge, non-invasive equipment, including thermal imaging and other state-of-the-art tools that locate pipes and detect irregular sounds. This sophisticated technology is instrumental in accurately pinpointing leaks and outlining effective and efficient mitigation measures.

"Sav-On Plumbing has seen the aftermath of many homes with interior damage caused by slab leaks when not remedied quickly," said Tom Thornton. "We offer swift, competent, and moderately priced solutions to Phoenix residents, reducing repair costs and disruption caused by slab leaks."

In addition to their slab leak service, Sav-On Plumbing provides complete plumbing services designed to solve to various home plumbing needs. These services include water heater repair and replacement, installation of water softeners and reverse osmosis systems, water pressure regulation, unique plumbing solutions for manufactured and mobile homes, toilet repair, and bathroom remodeling. To further educate Phoenix homeowners, Sav-On Plumbing has compiled a Phoenix Homeowners Plumbing Guide, a thorough collection of tips and solutions to handle plumbing issues.

Sav-On Plumbing offers a unique membership program - the Sav-On VIP Club. Membership offers priority service calls and access to special services and offers. VIP Club members receive faster response times, exclusive discounts on preventive services, and advance notice of all promotional and special offers.

Promoting preventive maintenance, the company conducts an extensive 62-point plumbing inspection to prevent water damage issues and keep plumbing in top condition. This detailed inspection scrutinizes your home's plumbing system to identify and address potential problems before they escalate into serious issues, resulting in costly repairs.

"Rigorous maintenance and inspections can often prevent serious, unexpected plumbing problems," adds Tom Thornton. "Our 62-point inspection gives homeowners the comfort of a carefully inspected plumbing system to help homeowners anticipate potential problems before they turn into urgent situations."
