Union, Georgia - February 08, 2024 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Best-Rate-Repair, a leading name in the construction and repair industry, proudly announces its rebranding to BRR Contractors. This monumental change comes as the company commemorates more than 22 years of unwavering commitment to exceptional service and client satisfaction.

The transition to BRR Contractors signifies a strategic move to honor our roots while embracing our extensive in Building, Renovating, and Repairing. As specialists in constructing and restoring wooden exterior and structural elements, such as decks, balconies, patio covers, staircases, waterproofing, and more, our new name reflects our dedication to our craft and the communities we serve.

“At BRR Contractors, we are thrilled to embark on this exciting new chapter in our company’s history,” said Steve Michna, CEO. “Our evolution to BRR Contractors encapsulates our proficiency in both new builds and repairs of our core focus work while underscoring our commitment to quality craftsmanship and client satisfaction.”

Renowned for its prowess in handling repair works compliant with California's SB326 and SB721, we specialize in ensuring the safety and compliance of structures, catering to multi-unit residences, HOAs, apartment complexes, and much more. Our adherence to these bills highlights our dedication to maintaining the highest standards of safety and structural integrity in every project we undertake.

"As we enter this new phase, our team remains steadfast in our mission to deliver unparalleled service and craftsmanship," added Steve Michna. "We look forward to continuing to serve San Diego County with the same passion, dedication, and expertise for many years to come."

BRR Contractors' rebranding represents an exciting milestone in its journey, signifying its commitment to innovation, quality, and unwavering dedication to its clients. In addition to this transformative rebrand, BRR Contractors is implementing several new initiatives to further enhance its service offering and customer experience. These initiatives include the expansion of its service portfolio to encompass eco-friendly construction materials and practices, reinforcing its commitment to sustainability and environmental responsibility. Moreover, the company is investing in state-of-the-art technology and equipment to streamline project management processes and ensure seamless communication with clients and our internal team.

Embodying their core values of Customer Service, Reputable, Solution Driven, Team Player, Fun, Flexible, No Bullshit, and No Assholes, BRR Contractors remains dedicated to excellence, innovation, and exceeding client expectations. BRR's Commitment to excellence is further exemplified by their Experienced In-house crew, fostering long-term partnerships, and delivering new work that shines while seamlessly blending with existing structures. Additionally, BRR's BuilderTrend Customer Portal ensures transparent communication and project updates, empowering clients to track progress and provide feedback seamlessly.

Steve Michna with BRR says "we not just a construction company; we are a family of passionate individuals committed to building excellence and fostering a culture of integrity, collaboration, and fun. We are the Best Place to Work and Number one in carpentry and deck coatings in San Diego County."

With its rebranding, the company reaffirms its position as a trusted industry leader and looks forward to continued success and growth in the years to come. For further information and inquiries, please visit our website at www.brrcontractors.com or contact our office at 619-229-0116
