

Amundson Law Office's Divorce Attorney, Lisa Amundson, Listens With Ears Wide Open, Gains Recognition

February 20, 2024

EAGAN, MN - February 20, 2024 -
Amundson Law Office LLC is thrilled to announce that its distinguished divorce attorney, Lisa Amundson, received recognition for her outstanding contribution to child support law. This achievement is particularly noteworthy in St. Paul, Minnesota, and its adjacent suburbs, especially Dakota County where Lisa resides.

Lisa Amundson, with her certification as a Guardian ad Litem for the State of Minnesota in Dakota County and memberships in several bar associations, has proven herself to be a vital figure in the family law industry. Her intricate understanding of family law, her adept negotiations in support matters, and her effective advocacy in domestic abuse cases all consolidate her exceptional performance in the realm of legal practice.

Responding to this acknowledgment, Lisa Amundson remarks, "This recognition validates and amplifies our commitment to protect the rights and meet the needs of our clients and their children. Within the confines of Minnesota law, we approach custody issues with a standpoint centered on representing the child's best interests. This reflection of our philosophy at Amundson Law Office fuels our dedication to our legal profession."

As a Respected Family Law Attorney, Lisa Amundson's competence in legal practice extends across various areas of family law. These areas of specialization encompass divorce, child custody and support, spousal support, alterations to support orders, and representation for clients experiencing domestic abuse. Furthermore, Lisa Amundson utilizes her legal expertise to ensure equitable results for all parties involved in high-asset divorce cases.
