Bigger Better Banner Expands Popular Vinyl Banner Sizes

April 02, 2024

Los Angeles, California - April 02, 2024 -
Bigger Better Banner, a leader in custom banner printing services, is excited to announce an update to its product range, confirming that they carry most of the popular vinyl banner sizes. This enhancement comes as a direct response to the increasing demand for a broader selection of sizes that can adequately serve various purposes ? from modest promotional banners for community events to substantial advertising materials suitable for trade shows and expansive outdoor advertising initiatives. By broadening their assortment of printable vinyl banner sizes, Bigger Better Banner aims to offer additional flexibility and convenience for its clientele, ensuring they can choose the ideal size for their distinct projects without any sacrifices.

The company boasts an extensive selection of popular vinyl banner sizes, carefully curated to cater to any promotional or advertising requirement imaginable. Whether the need is for small banners that fit perfectly within indoor settings or larger ones designed to attract attention in outdoor venues, Bigger Better Banner guarantees that its inventory encompasses the perfect dimensions for every occasion. The company takes pride in its approach to simplifying the banner design and printing process, offering users an intuitive online design tool, a variety of design templates, and the option for customers to upload their own designs seamlessly. For those interested in exploring the variety of services offered, including custom banner printing, large banner production, and their innovative online banner design tool, visit the company's website directly.

Charles Platon, spokesperson for Bigger Better Banner, highlighted the importance of this development, stating, "Our objective has consistently been to meet our customers' diverse needs with precision and simplicity. By ensuring we carry most of the popular vinyl banner sizes, we are streamlining the process for our clients to find precisely what they need for their marketing endeavors, celebrations, or any other type of event. This dedication to diversity and excellence distinguishes us and guarantees that our customers' messages are both noticeable and memorable."

This announcement follows one of two previous press releases that outlined the company's capabilities for high-resolution printing and a comprehensive suite of services including online, large, and rush banner printing options. Progressing from the second of two previous press releases, Bigger Better Banner reaffirms its commitment to environmental responsibility by employing eco-friendly, UV-cured inks in its printing processes. This approach ensures that while their banners are designed to have a significant visual impact, they exert a minimal environmental footprint. Platon added, "The enlargement of our product line to incorporate more banner sizes reflects our pledge to satisfy our customers' requests. We recognize the crucial role of visibility, whether at a busy trade show, an outdoor gathering, or within a retail setting. Our enhanced selections guarantee that every message, irrespective of its size, is communicated with clarity, vibrancy, and significance."

Bigger Better Banner is dedicated to perpetuating its legacy of delivering superior banner printing services while broadening its offerings to meet the evolving and diverse needs of its clients. With an emphasis on quality, customer satisfaction, and environmental conscientiousness, the company is poised to continue its leadership in the custom banner printing arena.
