

Home Instead East Hampshire Announces Part-Time Jobs Expansion In Hedge End to Support Growing Home Care Services

March 13, 2024

March 13, 2024 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Home Instead East Hampshire and Midhurst, a renowned organization offering home care services, is looking to expand its team. The increasing demand for home care services has led the company to amplify its recruitment efforts. The company's objective is to meet this growing demand by delivering personalized, superior quality care to ageing adults and their families, thus enriching their lives. The Care Quality Commission (CQC) has recognized Home Instead's commitment to excellence, bestowing them with a "Good" rating.

Speaking on the company's behalf, spokesperson Chloe Gardiner states, "Caregivers are at the core of our organisation. The ongoing hiring initiative is a direct response to the growing need for our services and presents a wonderful opportunity for community members to make a tangible difference in the lives of others. We are keenly awaiting the addition of dedicated and compassionate caregivers to our team."

Operating within the precincts of East Hampshire and Midhurst, Home Instead offers a comprehensive suite of services. These include a variety of care options, ranging from home visits, specialized care, health care to live-in care which is tailored according to the needs of each client. Home visits cover companionship, home help and housekeeping as well as personal care. It also encompasses night care, day care, and respite care. Specialized care includes a wide range of health conditions such as Alzheimer's, dementia, Parkinson's, cancer, neurological disorders, and services like palliative, postoperative & recovery, arthritis & mobility care. Additionally, caregivers also cater to health care needs including nail care, catheter care, stoma care, wound care, monitoring vital signs, diabetes management, non-invasive ventilation, and dietary management.

Live-in care is an ideal option for individuals requiring 24-hour assistance. In this scenario, the caregiver lives in the client's home, offering round-the-clock care. Moreover, Home Instead East Hampshire and Midhurst guide clients and their family members in understanding various aspects related to the cost of care, frequently asked questions and aging well.

The recruitment drive is specifically designed to broaden the hiring pool by attracting retirees and students seeking part-time jobs within East Hampshire and Midhurst. Incorporating such a diverse group into their team instils unique perspectives and strategies to caregiving, thereby raising the overall quality of services.

Besides delivering excellent home care services, Home Instead is also invested in their ongoing community engagement initiatives. "Our mission isn't only about delivering exceptional service," Gardiner notes, "it's also about being active contributors to the community in which we work. Hence, we actively collaborate with local organizations like Barclays Digital Eagles, Boots, Alzheimer's Society, and Parkinson's UK."

Home Instead East Hampshire and Midhurst welcome all interested individuals to explore the opportunity and reach out for further clarifications about becoming part of the team. Gardiner remarks in closing, "Our team functions like a family, all working towards the shared aim of enhancing the lives of those we support. We look forward to adding more like-minded individuals to this team."

Home Instead East Hampshire and Midhurst, through their range of services and community engagement, continue to affirm their commitment to enhancing lives and persistently improving the standards of care within their local communities.
