

Manhattan Clinic Now Offers Liposuction

January 04, 2016

January 04, 2016 -
Discreet Plastic Surgery, a plastic surgery practice in Manhattan and Brooklyn, NY, is proud to announce that they now also offer liposuction procedures. While only recently available as a treatment method through the clinic, people are already reviewing it with a lot of praise. Full details are available through the clinic's website on http://discreetplasticsurgery.com/.

"Liposuction is a very popular procedure but one that takes considerable skill and experience," says Dr. Daniel Kaufman from Discreet Plastic Surgery. "We felt that we should not offer it to our patients until we felt comfortable with our own experience and skill. We feel ready now, and we're happy to see so many people are pleased with the service and results already."

Daniel Kaufman MD FACS is a respected professional. He is fully Board certified for both plastic and reconstructive surgery. As the founder of Discreet Plastic Surgery, he has seen much success over the years. It is through this success that he has been able to open two offices, in Manhattan and in Brooklyn. His focus is on high quality service and patient confidentiality, which is why many rich and famous patients are on his books. He is recognized for his compassion by mentors, peers and patients alike, as well as for his excellent technical skills and artistic vision.

The services that he has provided to his many patients have been very positively reviewed. "I saw Dr. Kaufman for Botox," says Marie T. "He was very thorough explaining the whys and wherefores of the product and communicating what would be best for a successful outcome. Only having Botox one other time with a different doc and being disappointed, I was pleased Dr. Kaufman took the time to listen to my concerns. The first time I left with red knots all over my forehead that developed into bruises. This time with Dr. Kaufman I left with nary a knot, redness or bruising. His technique and skill are impressive. Trust him."

For further details on the various procedures that Dr. Kaufman offers through his clinic, which include liposuction, patients are encouraged to visit his website, where they will also have an opportunity to meet the clinic's team.
