

Manhattan Mental Health Counseling Introduces Molina Therapist Services, Amplifying Healthcare Access

March 22, 2024

March 22, 2024 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Manhattan Mental Health Counseling, a well-regarded provider of psychotherapy services, has revealed that it will now include Molina Therapy and Affinity Therapy in its range of offerings. This significant expansion aligns with the organization's goal to continually enhance mental health services for people dealing with a variety of mental health complications.

Manhattan Mental Health Counseling's approach has been thoughtfully crafted to ensure that mental health services are available to all, particularly Molina Healthcare members. They offer a broad range of therapy services, embracing everything from online therapy and work stress management to EMDR therapy and biofeedback therapy. Impressively, no co-pays or deductibles are required from Molina Healthcare members, making this a truly unrestricted mechanism for obtaining vital mental health support. For more information about their comprehensive services, please visit their website.

"By partnering with Molina Healthcare and Affinity by Molina, we are tearing down the financial barriers that too often prevent individuals from seeking the mental health care they need," said Natalie Buchwald, the founder of Manhattan Mental Health Counseling. "This is more than an expansion of our services; it's a commitment to our core belief that everyone deserves access to quality mental health care, regardless of their economic status."

Mental health disorders like depression, anxiety, PTSD, and OCD, among others, can be successfully navigated with the help of Manhattan Mental Health Counseling, and those services are now accessible to more people who are insured with Molina Healthcare and Affinity by Molina. This strategy demonstrates the mental health center's dedication to constantly extending its reach to help people facing mental health issues.

Integrating Affinity Therapy services marks another proactive move towards exhaustive mental health support. This new venture is in line with Affinity's respect as a prestigious healthcare provider within the Molina Healthcare group, promising continued therapy for various mental health disorders.

Those insured by Affinity Medicaid now have the opportunity to use therapy services such as anxiety therapy, spiritual therapy, PTSD therapy, couples counseling, and depression therapy without any limitations on the quantity of behavioral therapy sessions. This unrestricted access heralds a fresh approach to personalized mental health treatment, granting members the option to fully utilize these services.

The Founder acknowledged this collaboration, saying that the integration of Affinity Therapy Services aligns seamlessly with their broader pledge to provide inclusive, high-quality, and personalized mental health services to all.

Affinity Therapy services cover a range of conditions such as bipolar disorder, eating disorders, substance use disorder, as well as stress-related disorders. This ensures that Manhattan Mental Health Counseling's spectrum of mental health services encompasses all areas of mental health.

Manhattan Mental Health Counseling is a leading provider of psychotherapy and counseling services. With the additions of Molina Therapy and Affinity Therapy insurance programs, they are able to offer clients a comprehensive array of mental health services to more people. These additions further exemplify the organization's commitment to systematic inclusion, innovation, and efficacy in delivering mental health care solutions. These support their clients in attaining short-term progress and long-lasting life changes. Such actions by Manhattan Mental Health Counseling undeniably validate its commitment to creating a secure and facilitating environment for clients to discuss, comprehend, manage, and overcome their mental health challenges.
