March 19, 2024 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Moving On Recovery Centre, a newly formed substance abuse treatment facility in Colorado Springs, Colorado, is excited to announce its opening. With a leadership team that offers over 25 years of combined experience in the field, the center stands ready to provide extensive care to those battling substance abuse issues and accompanying mental health disorders.

Moving On Recovery Centre builds upon the understanding that the journey to recovery, like the challenges individuals face, is unique to each person. The center's fundamental approach is to create a custom, comprehensive range of services to ensure maximum comfort and efficiency in the treatment process. Central to their strategy is to customize the treatment plan to address the unique needs and difficulties of each individual they serve. Janis Homes, the CEO of Moving On Recovery Centre, shared, "Our primary mission at Moving On Recovery is to provide a sanctuary where individuals can begin their journey to recovery. We utilize current practices and top-notch facilities to tackle issues related to substance abuse and co-occurring mental health disorders. Our team of seasoned professionals is dedicated to aiding each and every client in their path to recovery."

Moving On Recovery Centre extends beyond the traditional framework for substance abuse treatment, offering a wide array of services. In addition to standard treatments like substance abuse counseling, the center underscores the importance of holistic recovery. This holistic approach includes aspects like family counseling to repair strained relationships, nutritional counseling to boost physical health, and vocational rehabilitation to ensure job stability after recovery.

Janis Homes added, "At Moving On Recovery, we foster an empathic attitude towards the stress faced by individuals struggling with addiction. We offer a range of assistive technology training, adaptive equipment training, and pain management techniques to smooth the recovery process. Our diverse services aim to simplify the journey towards sobriety, making it attainable and durable."

In addition to physical recovery, the center also offers mental health counseling, making it a well-rounded institution for those seeking overall wellbeing. With an inclusive approach that encourages group therapy, Moving On Recovery cultivates a sense of community among patients, allowing them to share experiences and learn from one another in a supportive, understanding environment.

New Horizons Recovery Center engages alternative therapies such as art therapy, music therapy, yoga therapy, and recreational therapy as part of their treatment program. By incorporating these novel therapy forms into the recovery process, they aim to address the physical, emotional, and mental health challenges faced by their clients.

Moving On Recovery Centre remains fervent in its commitment to reshape substance abuse treatment and recovery care standards in the region. Their expansive, multidimensional approach, extending beyond traditional addiction treatment, conveys a staunch commitment to ensuring individuals can enjoy a healthier and more fulfilling life after recovery.

Leading the charge in finding innovative ways to foster recovery from substance abuse, Moving On Recovery Centre is making a significant impact on the region's treatment landscape. By gently addressing the stigma surrounding addiction and advocating for comprehensive lifestyle recovery, they aspire to change how recovery from substance abuse is viewed in Colorado Springs and beyond. The center eagerly anticipates extending its compassionate, professional expertise to the community it is proud to serve.
