March 18, 2024 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Keystone Pro Wash, a top rated pressure washing service in Pennsylvania, proudly commemorates its five-year anniversary of operating in Cumberland Valley. Adding to this milestone, the company announces the expansion of its services to residents in Dauphin County, encompassing Harrisburg, Hershey, and Susquehanna Township.

Keystone Pro Wash presents a versatile selection of services including pressure washing, soft washing, house washing, concrete cleaning, playground sanitizing, roof cleaning, and commercial pressure washing. What sets Keystone Pro Wash apart is the use of top-grade equipment and environmentally friendly, non-toxic cleaning products across all their services. Over the past five years, the company has been the top choice for a myriad of residential and commercial properties while placing importance on customer satisfaction.

Their consistent dedication and expertise have fostered a solid reputation for Keystone Pro Wash, receiving an impressive 5-star rating on Google and Facebook from over 100 reviews. This appreciative feedback from consumers underscores the company's commitment to delivering outstanding cleaning services.

Company representative, Bill Mabey shares his thoughts on the five-year milestone, "We at Keystone Pro Wash are exhilarated and deeply grateful to celebrate our fifth year in service. Our loyal customers from Cumberland Valley, and now Dauphin County, who have continually entrusted us with their needs, fuel our commitment. We take great pride in making a visible difference by contributing to cleaner, safer residences, businesses, and public spaces."

The services provided by Keystone Pro Wash are extensive and designed to cater to various needs. Their soft washing service, for example, presents a gentle yet highly effective cleaning solution, facilitating dirt and grime removal while preserving property conditions. The company's house-washing service proficiently eliminates moss, and organic growth making it a popular choice among homeowners looking to improve their home's appeal for sale, lease or occasions.
