Netta Cheta's on Mill, a notable eatery in Tempe, Arizona, famed for exceptional breakfast and brunch offerings, is entering new territory for its customers. The restaurant, already highly-acclaimed for its breakfast and lunch service, has announced that they are extending their hours to accommodate dinner. This locally-owned business will continue demonstrating its versatility and catering to various dining needs during all hours of the day.

By welcoming the evening crowd Monday through Friday from 7 AM to 9 PM, and maintaining their tradition of breakfast and lunch services Saturday & Sunday 7 AM to 2 PM, Netta Cheta's on Mill strikes the perfect balance between maintaining their established customs and progressing with the times.

The decision to expand their service hours stems from their desire to better serve their loyal customers. Co-owner Ronetta Yracheta explained, "The extension of our operating hours mirrors our dedication to catering to the diverse schedules of our cherished customers and ensuring that, regardless of the time of day, they can always find comforting meals prepared with care."

Netta Cheta's on Mill takes pride in its expansive menu, which boasts a medley of comfort food to accommodate various tastes and dietary requirements. The menu is artfully crafted to appeal to all culinary preferences, tempting customers with a spectrum of delightful flavors. Just as impressive is the restaurant's remarkable drink menu. Alongside hearty meals, Netta Cheta's also delights its guests with a broad range of coffee selections and skillfully mixed cocktails, apt for any time of the day, sustaining its reputation as an establishment that specializes in food and beverages.

The restaurant also often serves as a venue for community gatherings and special events, transforming from a dining spot to a one-stop solution for a range of occasions. These include intimate celebrations, corporate meetings, and even Netta Cheta's signature gatherings like their intriguing Murder Mystery Event.

Current customers and potential guests can keep up with the latest happenings at Netta Cheta's on Mill by checking out their Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/nettachetas>. It's here that the restaurant regularly posts about their newest dishes, upcoming events, and the best deals, nurturing an online connection with their dining community.

Thrilled about the latest expansion, Co-Owner Ronetta Yracheta expressed, "We are eager to embark on this journey, not just as a breakfast and lunch restaurant, but as a welcoming space for an enjoyable evening of great meals in a cozy ambiance. We invite our loyal patrons and newcomers alike to join us in this exciting new phase of our story."

Netta Cheta's on Mill continues to strive for culinary innovation and aims to set high standards for dining experiences. The team, led by Adrian and Ronetta, remains dedicated to upholding the quality and service that initially made them a culinary standout in Tempe.

With the extension of its service hours, Netta Cheta's on Mill reinforces its ceaseless commitment to offering its customers new flavors and experiences, along with a revitalized approach to community dining. As the restaurant introduces its dinner service, it is set to amplify its position as a prominent culinary destination in Tempe, Arizona, presenting memorable gastronomic experiences for breakfast, lunch, and now, dinner.
