

CLA Global Summit in Maryland Seeking Entrepreneurs for Unrivalled Growth Potential

April 12, 2024

Silver Spring, Maryland - April 12, 2024 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Connected Leaders Academy is overjoyed to unveil the CLA Global Summit, scheduled for May 3rd to 5th, 2024, in Maryland, USA. This event aims to shepherd entrepreneurs toward unmatched growth and leadership, boasting a roster of over 30 speakers across various sectors, and is anticipated to draw more than 300 entrepreneurs worldwide. The summit, taking place at The Hilton Rockville Maryland, aims to create an environment that encourages networking, shares insights from industry pioneers, and presents actionable strategies for elevating businesses.

Under the guidance of Jose Escobar, the visionary behind Connected Leaders Academy, the summit is crafted to transform attendees' entrepreneurial journey. Here, entrepreneurs will find a rare chance to mingle with peers, dive into stimulating discussions, and absorb wisdom from successful practitioners. The assembly of celebrity speakers, including influencers like Nick Hutchison of BookThinkers and Anik Singal, founder of Lurn, Inc., known for his expertise in digital marketing and online business education underscores the summit's dedication to offering substantial and impactful content.

"The CLA Global Summit is more than an event; it represents a meeting of minds committed to nurturing enduring business growth and the evolution of leadership. We're uniting people who are not just experts in their domains but are equally fervent about imparting their expertise to budding entrepreneurs," relayed Dr. Andrea Adams-Miller, International Publicity Business Consultant to Jose Escobar, CEO of Connected Leaders Academy.

Endorsed by renowned entities such as Xcelerator and The RED Carpet Connection, LLC, the summit promises an all-encompassing approach to an entrepreneur's journey. From scaling businesses and networking to personalized coaching, the CLA Global Summit facilitates these ventures.

Beyond professional advancement, attendees will also recognize the power vested in community and collaborative endeavors. The Connected Leaders Academy has consistently highlighted the significance of solid networks, and the summit continues this ideology. It allows attendees to discover mentors, collaborators, potential investors, joint venture partners, and clients.

"Our ambition for the CLA Global Summit is to forge an ecosystem where entrepreneurs transcend their obstacles, empowered by the support they receive. By participating, individuals tap into essential resources and integrate into a community fervent about achieving excellence," CEO Jose Escobar elaborated.
