Koh Samui Thailand, 22-DECEMBER-2015 ? Professional Koh Samui wedding coordinator Maria Banzuela is proud to announce offers for unique and creative services to couples who are seeking help in planning Koh Samui wedding ceremony packages. Euro Asia Weddings owners Maria and Diana say they are well suited to assist with destination wedding planning.

Arranging all the elements of a wedding can result in a great deal of work, Maria says, and yet each couple wants the special day to be perfect. When the beautiful setting of Thailand is selected for a destination, employing the services of a skilled and experienced Koh Samui wedding planner can make long-distance planning simple and enjoyable, according to Maria. The Thailand wedding planner takes the time to learn the personalities and preferences of the bridal couples and puts together a ceremony which will allow the couple to relax and enjoy the day.

Repeated visits to Thailand prior to the wedding won't be required since the planner is well acquainted with the type of services which will be needed. Maria's background in the field of hotel management, sales, marketing and public relations unique to the hotel and tourism industry has given her the kind of reputation and connections which will ensure that each wedding will be a beautiful and exquisitely coordinated event.

The professional team, which puts together Koh Samui wedding packages, feels they have a strong sense of details, as well as a congenial approach. They can prepare recommendations for various types of themed weddings, taking into consideration the personality and preferences of the bride and groom. Euro Asia Weddings caters to weddings of all sizes, from small and simple events to elaborate grand ceremonies of dozens of guests.

Many couples choose to incorporate Thai culture, flowers and foods into an otherwise Western ceremony. The result is a ceremony with unique elements and lasting memories. The wedding coordinators can handle each element competently and creatively.
