December 29, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Shaba Digital Marketing, one of Melbourne's top search engine optimization (SEO) agencies, announced today that it has expanded its reach, launching SEO services in Sydney, Gold Coast, Perth, Brisbane and Adelaide. The firm is able to devise and implement a long-term SEO plan for its clients.

"If you want to be on the first page of Google where potential customers can find you, you should work with us," said John Shaba, Managing Director. "Now, we will also help you on a local SEO basis to attract customers in your city, whether it's Sydney, Perth, Gold Coast, Brisbane or Adelaide."

In addition to providing SEO, Shaba offers a full website design and digital marketing service, including:

Web design, social media marketing, pay-per-click (PPC) advertising, Google Map optimization, content and link building, e-commerce, email marketing. Shaba is known for forming close partnerships with clients though they do not require a long-term contract.
