Wish-A-Voo reveals the top most 3 wished items for spring 2015. The wish items include the new Samsung Galaxy S6 smart phone, the branded iPhone 6S from Apple and experience gift packages. The wish list company has been providing smart gifting ideas to the satisfaction of its customers.

When contact, the CEO of Wish-A-Voo said, "We have come up with top gifting ideas to help you choose the best ever gift for your dear ones." The CEO further added, "With the advancement in innovation and technology, the market offers numerous electronic gadgets and versatile gifting packages to choose from." The wish list company recommends smart phones and experience gifting options of holiday packages, tours, safaris, sports and adventures as well as brunch coupons. The products are geared to add smiles on your faces on the big day and make memorable moments. One of the company's representatives was noted saying, "When the time comes to choose the best gift for your loved ones we leave no stones unturned to help you make the best choice."

The first gift on the wish list includes the new Samsung Galaxy S6 from Samsung is loaded with versatile features. The smart phone's elegant sleek frame and incredible performance makes it perfect for gifting. The innovative product comes in two series Galaxy S6 and Galaxy S6 edge. With the option of power saving mode, the need to hold on with spare battery is now no longer required. The innovative piece also offers several features including crystal clear pictures, videos, games, colorful graphics and much more.

The second gift on the wish list reveals the next generation iPhone 6S from Apple promises exciting features including an improved camera. The branded handset comes in shades of gold, silver and space gray. Featuring the same design as that of iPhone 6, the new 6S series is geared to offer A9 processor and force touch screen. Other features include 16 GB, 64 GB, and 128 GB capacity. In a recent report the CEO of the company Tim Cook was noted saying, "Apple offers various sizes to reach broad range of customers as the choice of size differs from region to region." As per the report from the DigiTimes, iPhone 6S would be manufactured in the hands of Foxconn.

The third item recommended by Wish-A-Voo is experienced gifts for memorable moments. The package features an array of gifting choices to offer that include exciting holiday packages, destination safaris and romantic holidays. Keeping in mind the broad range of customers and their income levels, the packages also offer several low budget coupons to choose from that include coffee shop, brunch for couples, adventures, water park trip etc. For more information on experience gifting packages you can visit the facebook page Oplevelsesgaver Til Ham Og Hende.
