Home Instead Weston super Mare Enhances Care Services with New Live-in Options for Local Community

May 10, 2024

May 10, 2024 -
Home Instead Weston super Mare, a premier provider of home care services, is excited to announce the expansion of its extensive care offerings with the introduction of live-in care services in Burnham-on-Sea and surrounding areas. This development is in direct response to the increasing demand for in-home care solutions that support individuals in living independently in their own homes for as long as possible. Tailored to a wide range of needs, these live-in care services signify a commitment towards providing comprehensive, bespoke care solutions, ensuring clients receive the highest level of support ranging from companionship and personal care to specialised assistance for conditions such as Alzheimer?s, dementia, and diabetes.

Comprehensive live-in care services from Home Instead Weston super Mare are crafted to meet an array of needs, ensuring clients not only receive essential assistance with daily living activities but also gain a partner in their care professional, who supports them in leading a fulfilling, independent life at home. This expansion into live-in care services aligns with the company?s mission of delivering compassionate, personalised care, as articulated by Mike Keig, the owner of Home Instead Weston super Mare, ?Embedding live-in care services within the array of options we offer enables us to enhance our holistic approach to in-home care. This addition meets a crucial need in Burnham-on-Sea and its vicinity, bridging the gap between periodic home visits and the need for constant, comprehensive care.?

To learn more about this expansion and what it entails for clients in Burnham-on-Sea and the broader region, interested parties are directed to the announcement page accessible via https://www.pressadvantage.com/story/67677-home-instead-weston-super-mare-expands-care-services-with-live-in-options.
