May 22, 2024 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Located in Encinitas, north of San Diego, the spa introduces cutting-edge, customized skin care treatments for enhanced wellness.

Call of Beauty Med Spa is thrilled to announce the launch of its advanced skin care treatments, right in the heart of Encinitas, north of San Diego. This significant addition to their service offerings is designed to provide clients with personalized and innovative skin care solutions that cater to their individual needs.

Founded on the core principles of exceptional patient care and innovative treatment options, Call of Beauty Med Spa Encinitas has long been a pioneer in setting the standard for aesthetic excellence across Southern California.

The spa continuously updates its treatment portfolio to include the latest advancements in cosmetic and dermatological science, ensuring that clients receive the most effective and modern care available today.

The spa's recently expanded service offerings encompass a comprehensive range of treatments designed to address various aesthetic concerns. These include botox injections, renowned for their efficacy in reducing the appearance of fine lines and wrinkles; Juvederm fillers, which restore volume and smooth out skin; Kybella treatment, a revolutionary approach to diminishing fat under the chin; and lip augmentation procedures that enhance the fullness and definition of the lips.

Additionally, Dysport injections are available for those seeking a similar effect to botox with a different formulation.

Further enhancing its repertoire, the spa offers Sculptra injections that stimulate collagen production for a more youthful appearance, PRP Hair Stimulation for tackling hair loss with a regenerative approach, and microneedling treatments that rejuvenate the skin by promoting natural healing processes.

Each of these treatments is administered by highly skilled professionals who specialize in tailoring their approach to meet the unique needs and desires of each client, ensuring personalized and satisfying results.

Through its commitment to providing cutting-edge treatments and maintaining the highest standards of patient care, Call of Beauty Med Spa remains at the forefront of the aesthetic industry, helping clients achieve their desired outcomes with confidence and ease.

These treatments are provided in a serene and luxurious environment that reflects the spa's commitment to quality and client satisfaction. The spa's founder, Olga, brings a wealth of knowledge and an artistic touch to each procedure, ensuring outcomes that not only meet but exceed client expectations.

Tamara, a long-time client of Call of Beauty, shared her recent experience: "I recently visited Call of Beauty and I'm absolutely thrilled with the results! Olga's expertise and artistic eye have once again surpassed my expectations, helping me maintain a fresh and natural look that feels genuinely me. Her talent truly stands out in the industry. Additionally, the new location is stunning, reflecting the high quality and elegance that Olga brings to every aspect of her work. It's no surprise that the space is as beautiful and welcoming as the services provided. Highly recommend Call of Beauty to anyone looking to enhance their natural beauty. Olga, your work is exceptional!"

Committed to accessibility and convenience, Call of Beauty Med Spa proudly identifies as a women-owned business and accepts various forms of payment including debit cards, credit cards, and NFC mobile payments, accommodating the diverse preferences of their clients.

The spa's strategic location in Encinitas not only makes it a prime destination for local residents but also attracts visitors from surrounding areas including Carlsbad, Solana Beach, and Del Mar. Its proximity to major thoroughfares ensures easy access for clients traveling from both north and south of San Diego County.

The tranquil setting of the spa, coupled with the expert care provided, creates a serene oasis that draws individuals seeking to rejuvenate and enhance their natural beauty from all over the region. The peaceful ambiance and the meticulous attention to detail at Call of Beauty Med Spa serve as a beacon for those looking to escape the hustle and bustle of daily life and indulge in personalized, high-quality aesthetic care.
