Classic Car Deals Expands Digital Nationwide Presence: Bringing Classic Car Enthusiasts Closer to Their Dream Vehicles

June 04, 2024

CADILLAC, MI - June 04, 2024 -
Classic Car Deals, the nation?s premier online marketplace for classic cars, is thrilled to announce its expansion into new markets across the United States. This strategic growth allows Classic Car Deals to serve a broader audience of classic car enthusiasts, collectors, and buyers, providing them with unparalleled access to a diverse inventory of classic and vintage vehicles. This digital expansion allows people who want to consign their classic vehicle to get paired with buyers who want to find vehicles in their area.

With this expansion, Classic Car Deals aims to strengthen its position as the go-to destination for classic car transactions. The company has seen a surge in demand for classic vehicles, driven by a growing interest in automotive history and a desire for unique, high-quality cars. By extending its reach, Classic Car Deals can now offer even more options to customers in previously underserved areas.

?Our mission has always been to connect classic car lovers with their dream vehicles,? said John Beebe, CEO of Classic Car Deals. ?Expanding our footprint allows us to bring our extensive inventory and exceptional customer service to more people across the country. We are excited about the opportunities this expansion presents and look forward to helping more customers find their perfect classic car.?

Founded with a passion for automotive history and excellence, Classic Car Deals prides itself on providing a seamless and enjoyable buying experience. The company?s digital platform features advanced search tools, detailed vehicle listings, and high-quality images, ensuring buyers can easily find the perfect car. Each listing is accompanied by comprehensive descriptions and, when requested, professional inspection and appraisal services to guarantee authenticity and condition.

CEO John Beebe, a lifelong lover of classic vehicles, had this to say, "We love working with collectors at all stages. From the first-time buyer to someone who loves buying, restoring, and flipping classic vehicles. The days for our team are fun as we know that we are pairing people with a fun car they can share with their family and friends. On the flip side, its always fun and or sad for some people when they consign a vehicle with us. When it sells, its often bittersweet as a lot of the owners had an emotional connection to that vehicle."

In addition to expanding its geographic reach, Classic Car Deals is also enhancing its digital platform to offer a more user-friendly experience. The upgraded website will feature advanced search capabilities, detailed vehicle listings, and streamlined communication tools to facilitate seamless transactions for buyers and sellers.

As part of its commitment to customer satisfaction, Classic Car Deals is also introducing a newly updated customer support hotline available to assist with any inquiries or issues. This initiative ensures that every customer receives the support they need throughout the buying or selling process.

To celebrate this milestone, Classic Car Deals is showcasing some of the rarest and most sought-after vehicles in its inventory. These digital events will provide an opportunity for classic car enthusiasts to connect with the Classic Car Deals team, learn more about the company?s offerings, and experience the beauty of these timeless vehicles up close. Buyers or sellers are used to seeing classic, vintage and exotic vehicles on Classic Car Deals' website. Cars like the 1957 Bel Air, to the always desired 1957 Chevrolet Corvette can often be found on their website.
