January 06, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Taylor Home Improvement, a roofing repair contractor in Noblesville, IN, is proud to announce that they are now offering easy qualifying financing for roof repair. When it comes to roof repair Noblesville Indiana residents often do not have their problems fixed because they fear they cannot afford it. Unsurprisingly, the new finance option has been very positively received.

Taylor Home Improvement spokesperson Steve Taylor says: "Roof repair can be substantial investment, there is no way around that. However, not repairing a roof is far more expensive because it can cause tremendous damage to the property. We have now put a new finance system in place that is easy to qualify for, which will enable people to have their roof repaired as soon as possible, thereby avoiding extra costs."

The Noblesville roof repair company is highly respected in the area as delivering the high quality work, and being incredibly professional. The fact that they have now added their 0% financing option has opened up a world of possibilities for people whose homes are getting older, or whose roofs have been damaged in storms, for instance. The financing service is offered through the North Park Community Credit Union, which means it is also very easy to apply for.

The new finance option has been very positively received by many people. "I am so happy Taylor Home Improvement has started to offer finance," says Peter T. "My roof was damaged quite significantly in a recent storm, but I don't have any savings and my credit is less than ideal. I really thought that I would have to live in a derelict home. Thanks to Taylor, however, I now have a newly fixed roof with monthly finance that I can afford. A true life saver."

Taylor Home Improvement is known as the best roofing contractor Noblesville has to offer. This is not only because of their easy finance option, but another contributing factor is the fact that their services are so good. All of the company's employees have been properly trained in roofing and are committed to delivering high quality results for each of their clients.
