

Essex Union Podiatry Expands Pediatric Services: Find a Trusted Podiatrist Near Me in Rahway, New Jersey

June 18, 2024

June 18, 2024 -

Essex Union Podiatry, a well-known podiatric clinic in Rahway, New Jersey, is thrilled to announce the expansion of its Pediatric Podiatry services. The clinic is dedicated to providing thorough and caring foot care and now offers various treatments designed specifically for children. These treatments address conditions such as flat feet, in-toeing, out-toeing, and other pediatric foot issues.

The clinic has a team of experienced podiatrists, including Dr. Jason P. Galante, Dr. Sarah E. Haller, and Dr. Kaitlyn Testa, who are focused on offering the best possible outcomes for their young patients. By broadening their pediatric services, Essex Union Podiatry aims to meet the unique needs of children in Essex and Union counties.

Essex Union Podiatry's Pediatric Podiatry services include in-depth examinations and personalized treatment plans. They emphasize non-surgical solutions whenever possible, consistent with their mission of patient-centered care. The team understands that growing feet need specific attention and is committed to providing top-tier treatment and support.

Dr. Sarah Haller, who is part of the clinic's podiatry team, highlighted the need for early intervention in pediatric foot problems. "Early diagnosis and treatment can prevent serious issues down the road," Dr. Haller said. "Our aim is to offer treatments that ensure healthy foot development and overall well-being."

The expanded Pediatric Podiatry services cover a wide variety of conditions, such as congenital disabilities, foot deformities, and gait abnormalities. Treatments available include orthotics, physical therapy, and, in more severe cases, surgical interventions. This detailed approach ensures each child gets the care they need.

Besides pediatric care, Essex Union Podiatry continues to provide a range of treatments for adults. Services include foot and ankle surgery, trauma care, wound care, and sports medicine. The clinic is also skilled in handling diabetes-related conditions, offering preventive care and specialized wound treatment. These comprehensive services are detailed at Foot and Ankle Surgery, Trauma Care, and Wound Care, providing keen insights into the clinic's expertise.

Essex Union Podiatry is committed to patient care across its locations in Springfield, Rahway, and Caldwell. This makes it convenient for families in Union and Essex counties to receive top-quality podiatric care. The clinic accepts most major insurance plans, and patients can contact their nearest office to check their coverage.

"We are excited to expand our Pediatric Podiatry services," said Dr. Haller. "It's essential to provide specialized care for children so they can lead active and healthy lives. Our team is dedicated to offering the highest standard of care and helping children address their foot problems."

Parents looking for a trusted and experienced podiatrist in New Jersey for their children can now take advantage of the expanded services at Essex Union Podiatry. The clinic's commitment to patient comfort and thorough care makes it a go-to choice for families seeking top-notch podiatric care.
