June 14, 2024 -

The Advocates, a premier personal injury law firm with a strong presence throughout Idaho, is excited to announce the grand opening of its newest office location in Meridian. The office, situated at 1810 S Eagle Road, Meridian, ID 83642, will offer the same exceptional legal services and unwavering client support that The Advocates is renowned for across the state.

"The decision to expand The Idaho Advocates reach into Meridian was a natural one," stated Damian Kidd, Managing Partner at The Advocates. "As attorneys witnessed the rapid growth and development in the Treasure Valley, the law firm recognized the increasing need for high-quality legal representation in personal injury cases. By establishing a dedicated office in Meridian, The Advocates aim to provide the community with convenient access to a team of skilled and compassionate attorneys who are committed to fighting for the rights of injury victims and their families."

The Advocates' new Meridian office is poised to provide invaluable assistance to victims of car accidents and other personal injuries in the rapidly growing Meridian community. With the increasing population and traffic in the area, accidents are an unfortunate reality, and having experienced legal representation can make all the difference in securing fair compensation for medical expenses, lost wages, pain and suffering, and other damages. The Advocates' attorneys have a deep understanding of the physical, emotional, and financial toll that accidents can take on victims and their families. They are dedicated to providing compassionate guidance and aggressive advocacy to ensure that their clients receive the full amount they are entitled to from insurance companies and at-fault parties. By opening an office in Meridian, The Advocates are making their services more accessible to local residents, allowing them to focus on their recovery while their legal team handles the complex and often stressful process of pursuing a personal injury claim.

The Meridian office will specialize in a comprehensive range of personal injury cases, including car accidents, motorcycle accidents, pedestrian and bicycle accidents, dog bites, slip and falls, truck accidents, and accidents involving rideshare services like Uber and Lyft. The Advocates' attorneys bring a wealth of experience and an impressive track record of successfully securing substantial compensations for their clients, ensuring that they receive the justice and financial support they deserve.

"At The Advocates, lawyers understand that a personal injury can have a profound impact on an individual's life, affecting their physical, emotional, and financial well-being," Branden Huckstep, firm attorney explained. "That's why The Advocates approach every case with the utmost care and dedication, treating clients as if they were family members. Attorneys ay The Advocates firmly believe that no one should have to bear the burden of an injury caused by someone else's negligence, and are committed to holding the responsible parties accountable."

The Advocates operates on a contingency fee basis, which means that clients don't have to pay any upfront costs or attorney fees. The firm only collects a fee if they successfully secure a monetary recovery for their clients. This arrangement ensures that everyone, regardless of their financial situation, has access to top-quality legal representation.

"The Idaho Advocates are thrilled to become a part of the vibrant Meridian community and extend services to those in need," said Kelby Monks, Managing Attorney. "The team is ready to listen to stories, provide expert guidance, and tirelessly advocate on the behalf of clients. WThe firm wants the people of Meridian to know that they have a trusted ally in The Advocates, and that they are here to support them in every step of their legal case."

In addition to the new Meridian location, The Advocates has well-established offices in Boise, Twin Falls, Idaho Falls, and Pocatello. Individuals seeking legal assistance for personal injury cases can schedule a free consultation by calling (208) 995-2444 or by visiting the firm's website at idahoadvocates.com.
