June 26, 2024 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Lawrence of La Brea has just introduced its latest collection of vintage and antique rugs, now available on their website. This new lineup includes a wide variety of styles such as Mashad Antique Rugs, Tabriz, Turkish, Kilims, Mahal, Malayer, and more. Buyers can look forward to a unique selection of antique rugs, showcasing their commitment to quality and artistic heritage in every item.

David Nourafshan, the owner of Lawrence of La Brea, shared his excitement: "We are thrilled to present our latest collection of antique rugs. Our team has worked diligently to source these exceptional pieces, and we believe they will provide our customers with stunning options to enhance their homes." His passion for rugs is obvious, evident from the store's reputation for offering high-quality carpets in a range of unique styles.

For over 25 years, Lawrence of La Brea has been a trusted name among designers and homeowners. They provide personalized rug services, helping customers find or even create the perfect rug for their space. Custom designs are tailored to match the aesthetics of a home and the personality of its owner.

Besides the new collection, the store also offers a robust selection of vintage, Persian, art deco, flat weave, modern, traditional, and transitional rugs. Each piece is carefully chosen to cater to various tastes and decoration needs. The recently announced collection continues this tradition of offering unique and rare rugs.

Lawrence of La Brea also specializes in expert rug care and restoration services, which help rugs maintain their beauty and value over time and breathe new life into older pieces.

To see these stunning antique rugs in person, visiting the showroom is a must, allowing customers to appreciate the intricate details and richness of each rug up close.

For those who prefer to browse from home, La Brea's website displays all available rugs, including new arrivals, with images and detailed descriptions. This makes it easy for clients to make informed decisions without needing to visit in person.
