

Allfloors Trade Centre Expands Wood Flooring Services in Kent: Premium Options and Expert Installation

July 11, 2024

Kent, England - July 11, 2024 -
Allfloors Trade Centre is expanding its wood flooring services in Kent. This flooring specialist, which boasts over 100 years of combined experience, aims to offer high-quality wood flooring options and expert installation to both residential and commercial clients. With a reputation for a wide selection of flooring products and dependable installation services, the company is upping its game to meet the increasing demand.

John Pitt, the CEO of Allfloors Trade Centre, said, "We are excited to expand our wood flooring services in Kent. Our goal is to ensure residents and businesses have access to top-quality flooring solutions that enhance the beauty and value of their properties."

The expanded services include various wood flooring options, such as solid oak, parquet, and engineered wood. Solid oak is popular for its durability and timeless look. Parquet flooring stands out with intricate design patterns that add character to any room. Engineered wood is known for its stability and resistance to moisture.

Allfloors Trade Centre also promises expert installation services by experienced professionals skilled in fitting all types of wood flooring. Their installation process is meticulous, starting with an initial survey and estimate, all the way to the final touches. This thorough approach leaves customers with a high-quality floor tailored to their needs.

Apart from wood flooring, the company offers a range of other flooring solutions, including carpet, vinyl, luxury vinyl tile (LVT), laminate, and artificial grass. They provide complete flooring packages that include design consultation, supply, and installation.

?Our design consultations help customers find the perfect flooring for their space,? said John Pitt. ?We consider their style preferences, functional needs, and budget to recommend the best solutions.?

Their domestic flooring services include surveying the area, providing estimates, offering advice, and supplying samples. After a customer selects their desired flooring, the installation is handled with care and precision, ensuring a smooth process from start to finish.

For commercial clients, Allfloors Trade Centre offers adaptable designs suited to different industries. They understand the specific needs of various business environments and provide practical solutions that are both attractive and durable.

Allfloors Trade Centre also offers free estimates and commits to beating any written quotes for the required work. This promise of competitive pricing ensures that customers get good value without sacrificing quality.

Moreover, they offer a full fitting service in Kent, London, Medway, Aylesford, and surrounding areas. This service includes everything from the initial fitting to providing supplies, design services, and aftercare, ensuring a complete solution.

To help customers stay informed about the latest flooring trends, the company offers resources such as a blog. This helps people make informed decisions about their flooring choices.

Additionally, the company has released a video outlining their wood flooring services, which can be viewed here: Allfloors Trade Centre - Wood Flooring Kent - Video.

This expansion highlights Allfloors Trade Centre?s dedication to providing high-quality wood flooring options and expert installation services. Their focus on customer satisfaction and comprehensive service offerings keeps them a leading name in the flooring industry.

"We are dedicated to helping our customers create spaces they love with quality flooring that lasts," concluded John Pitt. "This expansion is a testament to our ongoing commitment to excellence in service and product offerings."
