Rehab Warns of Common Fentanyl Street Names

June 21, 2024

June 21, 2024 -
One of the oldest rehab centers in the state, Serenity Lane of Bend, Oregon, recently published an article educating residents about the street names for fentanyl. With their long history in the field of substance use, they post informative articles to help the community better understand substance use in all its forms.

Serenity Lane knows that the average reader isn?t up-to-date on all slang, especially regarding substance use. Being able to identify these street names, however, allows readers to better identify when their loved one might be engaging with substance use. Street names, Serenity Lane explains, are slang terms or nicknames that are used to talk about substances.

In the article, Serenity Lane takes the time to set readers' expectations regarding the information available: ?We aim to provide an overview of these terms, but it?s important to note that we cannot cover them all. Slang of any kind will constantly be changing, and may even vary slightly from region to region.?

?The main point of street names is to talk about the drugs without the notice of law enforcement. If every street name were well known, this would not be very effective!? Serenity Lane further explains. ?It?s important to emphasize that street names are constantly changing, and the internet has only sped this process up. Any list of names can?t be fully comprehensive, at least not for very long.?

The Pacific Northwest rehab center takes the time to list common, known street names for fentanyl and also breaks down many known emojis that are used to talk about fentanyl and substance use. This ranges from generic drug-related emojis to one used specifically for fentanyl.

On top of speaking on street names, Serenity Lane dives partially into some of the prescription varieties of fentanyl. While not as commonly seen on the illicit market, the misuse of prescription medications is common amongst painkillers like fentanyl. They take the time to explain the different kinds of fentanyl medications to the reader and the common brand names associated with them.

For parents reading this piece, Serenity Lane touches on how to approach this topic with your kids. ?Keep the conversation relevant and direct - don?t try to sugarcoat any language. It?s important to communicate any danger, as well as be realistic and open about how to recognize when fentanyl is being discussed.?

This piece provided by a reliable source such as Serenity Lane is a good guide and reference for anyone in the community. Knowledge about substance use is one of the primary ways to lower stigma and spot someone who needs help. Those interested can find the article linked above.

Serenity Lane has been helping people overcome substance and alcohol use disorders since 1973. All of the programs they offer have been accredited by the Commission on Accreditation of Rehabilitation Facilities (CARF). They have introduced many new programs in Oregon, such as residential step-down and outpatient programs that integrate residential and outpatient services. They have also been the provider of the only Addiction Counselor Training Program in Oregon. Some of their graduates are now offering their services through several treatment programs throughout the country.

People who would like to know more about the addiction treatment services available through Serenity Lane of Bend, Oregon can visit their website or contact them by telephone or email. Serenity Lane has live people ready to help place patients from 8:00 am - 7:30 pm Monday through Friday, and 8:00 am - 6:00 pm Saturday and Sunday.

###

For more information about Serenity Lane Bend Outpatient Treatment, contact the company here:Serenity Lane Bend Outpatient TreatmentStephanie Edwards541-485-1577info@serenitylane.org920 SW Emkay Dr Suite #104Bend OR 97702

Serenity Lane Bend Outpatient Treatment

Serenity Lane was established as a private, non-profit addiction treatment center for alcoholism and drug use in 1973. We have programs throughout Oregon and Southwest Washington. We believe that recovery from addiction is possible.

Website: https://serenitylane.org/location/bend-or/

Email: info@serenitylane.org

Phone: 541-485-1577

