Home Instead Hamilton Expands Exceptional Home Care Services to Cabuslang

August 07, 2024

August 07, 2024 -
Home Instead Hamilton, a trusted home care provider in South Lanarkshire, has announced that it is expanding its live-in care services to Cambuslang and nearby areas. This expansion aims to meet the rising need for personalised and professional in-home care in the region. Since starting on June 16, 2016, the company has been known for its dependable services and commitment to client well-being. Their offerings include companionship, personal care, home help, specialist care, and now more accessible live-in care services with minimal waiting times.

Alan Barr, a representative from Home Instead Hamilton, shared his thoughts on this new step. "We are excited about expanding our services to the Cambuslang community," he said. "By providing live-in care, we can ensure that more individuals receive the compassionate assistance they need without delays. This move allows us to support more families in maintaining their loved ones' independence and dignity."

The live-in care services from Home Instead Hamilton cover many needs. These include companionship, personal care, night care, and respite care. Companionship focusses on engaging clients in conversations and activities, ensuring they do not feel isolated. Personal care includes help with bathing, dressing, and medication reminders. Night care offers support throughout the night, and respite care provides temporary relief for primary caregivers.

Besides live-in care, Home Instead Hamilton provides various home care services specific to the Cambuslang area. These services include grocery shopping assistance, diabetes monitoring, mobility aid, meal preparation, transportation support, medication management, and fall prevention measures. Every service is tailored to meet the unique needs of each client, ensuring that comprehensive and personalised care is delivered.

Alan Barr explained the importance of these services. "Our team is dedicated to enhancing the quality of life for our clients," he stated. "We take a personalised approach to care, understanding that each individual has unique needs. Whether it's assistance with daily chores or specialised health care, our caregivers are trained to provide high-quality support."

Home Instead Hamilton is known for its high standards and quality care. The company holds a good rating from the Care Inspectorate and a 9.6 rating on homecare.co.uk. Additionally, they have twenty-five 5-star reviews on Google, showing the satisfaction of their clients. These ratings highlight the company's commitment to delivering excellent care and support.

Home Instead Hamilton operates from 9:00 to 17:00, Monday through Saturday, and offers 24-hour online assistance to ensure that help is always available. This setup ensures that clients have access to support whenever they need it. The expansion into Cambuslang matches the company's ongoing commitment to providing reliable and accessible home care services.
