

EDMOND PROBATE ATTORNEY

Cortes Law Firm Expands to Edmond, Oklahoma Offering Expert Probate Attorney Services

June 26, 2024

OKLAHOMA CITY, OK - June 26, 2024 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

The Cortes Law Firm is excited to announce that it is serving families in Edmond, Oklahoma, to further specialize in probate and estate planning services. This expansion aims to provide residents of Edmond with easier access to skilled legal guidance.

With over twenty years of experience, Cortes Law Firm offers comprehensive legal services in estate planning, probate, general counsel, and probate real estate. Stephen L. Cortes leads the firm, bringing extensive experience in these areas, ensuring clients receive skilled advice and support.

Estate planning is a core service offered by the firm. This includes preparing crucial documents and educating clients on the importance of asset titling so their estate planning documents function correctly. The goal is to make the process as simple and efficient as possible.

In addition to estate planning, the firm offers probate services to help navigate Oklahoma's often complex and frustrating probate procedures. With more than 22 years in this field, the team at Cortes Law Firm assists clients during these challenging times, ensuring a smoother probate process.

Stephen L. Cortes also provides general counsel services. Having served as General Counsel to Governor Henry, his experience is invaluable for businesses in Oklahoma needing day-to-day legal services.

For those dealing with probate real estate matters, the firm stands ready to assist. Often, a Judge's Order is needed to probate real estate and transfer it to rightful heirs. The firm helps clients avoid potential financial pitfalls by guiding them through this complicated process.

"We're thrilled to expand our services to Edmond, Oklahoma," said Steve Cortes, founder of Cortes Law Firm. "Our aim is to provide the same level of expertise and personalized attention here as we have in Oklahoma City. We look forward to building long-term relationships with our clients in the Edmond area."

Cortes Law Firm prides itself on personalized representation, giving individual attention to each client. They offer additional services such as revocable living trusts, wills, powers of attorney, living wills, healthcare power of attorney, adult guardianship, and others. These also include probate and trust administration, charitable trusts, special needs trusts, life insurance trusts, family limited partnerships, limited liability companies, family law, and civil litigation.

The firm's location in Oklahoma City is conveniently located at the corner of Broadway Extension and NW 63rd Street. By reducing the distance, the firm aims to make legal guidance more accessible to a broader audience.

Through this new branch, the firm continues its dedication to providing top-quality representation to their clients. The objective is to ensure that their clients' wishes form the cornerstone of their estate plans, providing peace of mind and a stable future for future generations.

"Offering services in Edmond is a significant step for us," added Steve Cortes. "We believe that offering our services empowers more individuals and families in their legal matters. From estate planning to probate law, we're here to help our clients make informed decisions."

This highlights the firm's commitment to addressing local needs effectively. The team is made up of experienced professionals who guide clients through the maze of legal requirements, ensuring a streamlined process.
