Wiebe Criminal Defence Announces New Legal Services for Defence Against Sexual Interference Charges in Winnipeg

June 26, 2024

June 26, 2024 -
Winnipeg, MB ? Wiebe Criminal Defence, led by Gerri Wiebe, is pleased to announce the expansion of its legal services to include defence against sexual interference charges, serving Winnipeg and the surrounding areas. This addition aims to meet the growing demand for dedicated legal representation in complex and sensitive cases.

Gerri Wiebe, with nearly two decades of legal experience and having conducted trials at all levels of court in Manitoba, including the Supreme Court of Canada, brings a deep understanding of the criminal justice system to these serious charges. Her extensive experience across multiple provinces ensures that clients receive knowledgeable legal guidance.

Sexual interference involves any form of unwanted or illegal physical contact and is taken extremely seriously by the legal system. The charges can have profound implications on the life and future of the accused. Recognizing the complexity and sensitivity of these charges, Wiebe Criminal Defence ensures that all clients receive respectful and meticulous legal care.

Clients choosing Wiebe Criminal Defence can expect a highly confidential process, beginning with a free case evaluation. This initial consultation allows the team to understand the specifics of the case while providing clients with an overview of potential legal pathways.

Their approach to these cases is rooted in a deep respect for legal ethics and client confidentiality. The firm understands the sensitive nature of sexual interference charges and prioritises discretion and sensitivity in all client interactions.

The firm is dedicated to providing transparent and continuous communication, helping clients understand their legal situation and the steps that can be taken towards managing their case.

From the initial filing of a defence to the final resolution of the case, their team is there every step of the way. Guidance is provided on possible legal outcomes, the implications of different choices, and strategies for the defence. Their commitment to clients extends beyond the courtroom. Their aim is to support clients in maintaining their dignity and managing the stress that can accompany such charges.

Their legal practices are designed to prioritise the needs and well-being of clients. Their firm understands that facing criminal charges can be a stressful and daunting experience. A structured yet flexible approach to legal defence is offered, ensuring that each client's unique circumstances are considered. Efforts are made to mitigate the impact of the legal proceedings on clients' daily lives, aiming to maintain as much normalcy as possible.

Recognizing the urgent nature of sexual interference charges, Wiebe Criminal Defence offers 24/7 availability to ensure that clients can reach the firm whenever they need legal assistance. This level of accessibility is part of the commitment to providing responsive and immediate support to clients.
