

Gash & Associates, PC Earns 5-Star Review for Exceptional Personal Injury Legal Services

July 01, 2024

July 01, 2024 -
Gash & Associates, P.C. has recently been awarded a 5-star review, highlighting their excellent legal services, especially in the area of personal injury law. Based in White Plains, New York, this full-service firm provides a wide range of legal help to clients across New York City and the Tri-State area.

The firm tackles a variety of personal injury cases, including motor vehicle and trucking accidents, workplace incidents, construction accidents, wrongful death, product liability, defective medical devices, premises liability, slip and fall cases, and landlord responsibility. They also take on medical malpractice cases, handling issues like birth injuries, surgical errors, and fetal death.

"At Gash & Associates, our mission is to treat each client with the utmost respect and attention. We understand that dealing with a personal injury case can be incredibly stressful, and our goal is to provide the best possible outcome for our clients," said Gary Mitchel Gash, Esq., Founder and Senior Partner at Gash & Associates, P.C.

Beyond personal injury, the firm also specializes in civil rights law, commercial law, employment discrimination, and nursing home neglect. They offer legal services in divorce and family law, as well as criminal defense. The firm prides itself on being accessible to all clients and offers services in Spanish.

Gash & Associates, P.C. understands the importance of helping clients navigate the legal process. Their website features a FAQ section and a video center with strategic legal insights, keeping clients informed about various legal issues.

Operating on a contingency fee basis, clients do not owe any attorney fees until the firm secures a recovery. They also offer free personal injury consultations and are willing to visit clients who can't travel due to their injuries. This client-first approach is a testament to their commitment to personalized and compassionate legal representation. More information about their services can be found on their website at www.gashlaw.com.

"Our team of experienced personal injury lawyers is dedicated to ensuring that justice is served for our clients. We take great pride in the trust our clients place in us, and we work tirelessly to uphold that trust," added Gary Mitchel Gash, Esq.

Their dedication has not gone unnoticed. A recent 5-star review praised Gash & Associates, P.C. personal injury lawyers for their professionalism and effective support. The client specifically mentioned the firm's thorough approach and the positive outcome of their case as evidence of their high-quality service.

For anyone needing a personal injury lawyer in White Plains, Gash & Associates offers reliable and experienced help. Their deep understanding of personal injury law allows them to handle complex cases and achieve successful outcomes for their clients.

Gash & Associates, P.C. has a team of 11 attorneys, each bringing a wealth of experience and specialization to the firm. Notable attorneys include Gary Mitchel Gash, Esq., Thomas A. Agoglia, Esq., and Louis Anthony Badolato, Esq. Detailed profiles of each attorney, along with their areas of expertise, are available on the firm?s website for transparency and insight into the team?s credentials.

The firm?s commitment goes beyond just handling cases. They aim to educate and empower their clients through resources like FAQs, legal insights, and informational videos on their website. This dedication to client education shows they are not just advocates but also guides through the often complex legal landscape.

Located in White Plains, New York, Gash & Associates, P.C. can be contacted for free consultations through their website or by phone. For those unable to visit the office due to injuries, the firm offers to meet clients at their location, further showing their client-first philosophy.

The 5-star review of Gash & Associates, P.C. highlights the quality and dedication of their personal injury lawyers. Their wide range of services and commitment to client welfare make them a dependable choice for anyone seeking legal representation in personal injury cases.

###

For more information about Gash & Associates, P.C., contact the company here:Gash & Associates, P.C.Gary Mitchel Gash, Esq.(914) 328-8800info@gashlaw.comGash & Associates, P.C.235 Main StWhite Plains, NY 10601, United States

Gash & Associates, P.C.

Gash & Associates, P.C. is a full-service litigation firm dedicated to zealous representation of clients in various legal areas throughout New York, New Jersey, and Connecticut.

Website: https://gashlaw.com/

Email: info@gashlaw.com

Phone: (914) 328-8800