Willis Coaching Expands to Wilmington Offering Small Business Coach Services and More

July 02, 2024

WILMINGTON, NC - July 02, 2024 -
Willis Coaching is expanding to Wilmington and Wrightsville Beach, North Carolina. The company will now offer its services to both individuals and small businesses in these areas. Willis Coaching provides a range of services including life coaching for young adults, life coaching for men, confidence coaching, small business coaching, and online business coaching. One unique offering is their Walking Talking Coaching sessions.

Adrian Willis, founder of Willis Coaching, spoke about this new phase for the company. "Expanding to Wilmington and Wrightsville Beach allows us to bring our unique coaching methods to new communities," he said. "We are thrilled to help people grow personally and professionally with strategies tailored to their goals."

The life coaching services at Willis Coaching assist young adults in identifying goals, overcoming barriers, and making plans to reach their aims. The life coaching for men addresses the specific challenges faced by men, aiming to boost their confidence, improve relationships, and support career goals.

In addition, Willis Coaching offers small business coaching. This service provides advice on business planning, strategy, and management to help business owners grow and increase profitability. The online business coaching service is designed for individuals running or planning to start an online business, offering guidance on business strategy and marketing.

Another key service is confidence coaching. This service helps clients build self-esteem using techniques like positive reinforcement, goal setting, and cognitive behavioral therapy.

The Walking Talking Coaching sessions stand out since they involve the coach and client taking a walk during their session. This approach can spark creative thinking and offer a more relaxed setting for discussions.

The company also provides specialized coaching in Wilmington, NC, tailored to client needs. These sessions may be conducted in person or online, depending on what the client prefers.

"Our broader vision is to use coaching as a tool to inspire and support diverse populations," said Adrian Willis. "We want to set up individuals and small businesses for long-term success and satisfaction."

Willis Coaching customizes its strategies to fit the specific needs and dreams of each client. Their approach combines the expertise of a business coach with the insights of a personal life mentor, offering a comprehensive and effective coaching experience. For more details on their business and life coaching services, visit their website at Willis Coaching.

The company encourages potential clients in Wilmington and Wrightsville Beach to discover the benefits of collaborating with a business coach dedicated to their growth and success. They offer no-obligation strategy sessions, giving interested individuals and business owners a chance to discuss their specific needs and goals.

This expansion is a major milestone for Willis Coaching, opening up new opportunities for growth and development in the Wilmington and Wrightsville Beach communities. The company is committed to creating a culture of growth and development by providing comprehensive coaching services that tackle personal and professional challenges.

Willis Coaching's commitment to the growth and success of their clients is clear in this expansion. By bringing their services to Wilmington and Wrightsville Beach, the company aims to make a significant positive impact on these communities.

The team is enthusiastic about this new chapter and looks forward to supporting more individuals and small businesses in achieving their goals with tailored coaching strategies. Interested individuals are encouraged to visit their website to learn more about the different services offered and to book a 30 minute consultation strategy session.
