January 06, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Serviced by the Steward Group, High Risk Solutions is a consultancy firm that is helping companies with electronic payments. The company is providing custom solutions for high risk and conventional business models and has now announced a new feature to make their services more accessible.

Almost every company has hired a consultancy firm at one point to solve their problems. High Risk Solutions is a consultancy firm that has been in the business for more than 20 years and has worked with thousands of companies. The firm provides custom solutions and consultancy regarding electronic payments to all businesses, be it a potential high risk business model or a conventional one.

The firm works in providing each and every client with custom solutions to minimize their costs in overall credit card processing fees and works with retail and eCommerce clients likewise. The company has recently announced an addition to their service that is allegedly setting them apart from any other consultancy firms out there in the field of electronic payment solutions.

The firm has now introduced an option for their clients to get emergency consultation, 100% free of charge. The spokesperson for the High Risk Solutions spoke about the company and their new solution in an official press statement: "While traditional banks refrain from higher risk profiles, here at High Risk Solutions we do the opposite. We provide our clients with custom solutions that fit their needs and give them the best value for their money. Our main goal is to make the process of electronic payment less complicated for our clients and to mitigate the processing fee as much as possible."

He further spoke about the emergency support feature: "Even though we have been in the business for more than 20 years and have encountered all sorts of scenarios, sometimes there are issues that need emergency support and that's what we want to give our clients. Through our website, we are now making ourselves more accessible and with our emergency consultancy features, customers can get solutions to their problems quickly and without any hassle.?
