Opening Roof Specialists Launches Premium Pergola Accessories and Designs for Year-Round Outdoor Comfort

July 08, 2024

July 08, 2024 -
Opening Roof Specialists, based in Sydney and known for its custom louvre roof pergolas, is excited to announce an expansion of its pergola design and construction services. They now offer new, premium pergola accessories aimed at making outdoor living more comfortable and functional year-round.

Their pergola construction services are crafted to survive the tough Australian weather. Built entirely from aluminum, these structures are durable and resistant to rust. The new accessory range adds benefits like lighting, heating, and privacy features that make outdoor spaces more usable in any season.

One highlight of what Opening Roof Specialists offers is the Eclipse Opening Roof system. This system can be added to both new and existing pergolas, making it a great option for various outdoor setups. The slimline louvres rotate up to 170 degrees and come in over 60 colors, allowing homeowners to customize them to fit their outdoor aesthetic. "Expanding our product line with these premium accessories allows us to meet the growing demand for versatile and comfortable outdoor living spaces," said the Sales Director of Opening Roof Specialists. "With our new offerings, homeowners can enjoy their pergolas year-round, regardless of weather conditions."

Their open roof installation service includes everything from the initial design consultation to the final installation. They handle obtaining council approvals, fabricating materials, and on-site construction. Accessories like ceiling fans, outdoor heaters, and Ziptrak® exterior blinds can be added to these pergolas, increasing their functionality.

Besides serving residential customers, Opening Roof Specialists also cater to commercial clients. They collaborate closely with architects and builders on commercial projects, providing the expertise and materials needed for successful installations. This makes them a preferred choice for both homeowners and businesses.

Customer service is a big focus for the company. They offer free design consultations and quick estimates over the phone to help clients plan their budgets. Plus, they provide flexible financing options through Brighte Finance, allowing eligible homeowners to get pre-approval for amounts up to $30,000.
