Little Market School Club is celebrating their growing success by launching a new website for their children's parents and staff. School Club owner, Kathy James has recently decided to start an After School Club in order to cater for the children in a more personal environment. Based in Romford, The Wykeham Centre, The Little Market After School Club has shown immense dedication and care into all of their children.

The owner of the after school club in Romford says, "We work with our children to target their specific needs. The most important thing to us is the child's development and success. We encourage our children to reach for the stars and achieve his or her full potential."

The staff at Little Market School Club are fully qualified in childcare and they also accept apprentices who have a strong passion for working with children. The closely knit team say they are excited for the new website launch and are thankful to all of the parents and careers for their ongoing support. "Without all the support from the children's family and friends we wouldn't have been able to accomplish this dream." Kathy then goes on to say. "I have always wanted to own a children's after school club and now it's a reality, I can focus on doing what makes me happy."

They have an environment for the children to thrive in all areas of child development. All after school club activities incorporate an element of creativity and fun in order to make the learning experience an enjoyable one. The staff also provide snacks and drinks to keep the children healthy and hydrated. The activities run by the Little Market team focus on expanding the child's knowledge of the outside world together with encouraging social behaviour and boosting academic knowledge.

The Little Market staff promise to continue to show their passion in childcare by accepting new members into their family. The Little Market School Club website is now open at <http://littlemarketschoolclub.co.uk/>
