July 12, 2024

Sellersburg, Indiana - July 12, 2024 -
David Kummer, known for his horror, mystery, and young adult fiction, is excited to announce his latest book, "The Silent Forest." This book is the second installment in "The House on the Hill" series, where the eerie events in the small town of New Haven continue to unravel. The story follows the main character, Kaia, on her journey to discover the town's dark secrets and find her missing friend, Allison.

The new release has already garnered positive attention from many reviewers. They have praised its atmospheric setting and gripping storyline. Fans of both horror and well-crafted mysteries have found something to enjoy in this series.

David Kummer shared his thoughts about the series, saying, "Writing 'The House on the Hill' series has been a thrilling experience. I wanted to create a world where readers could feel both the suspense and the emotional journey of the characters. 'The Silent Forest' continues that journey, expanding the mysteries that surround New Haven."

One notable review from BookView Review describes it as "a page-turner marked by missing people, dark occurrences, and escalating fear."
