

Skinwalker Ranch Filming Puts Divine Desert Destination in Borrego Springs Under Paranormal Spotlight

July 17, 2024

BORRREGO SPRINGS, CA - July 17, 2024 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Divine Desert Destination, a well-known vacation rental company, is excited to announce the recent filming of an episode of the popular show "Skinwalker Ranch" close to its vacation rental in Borrego Springs. This adds a new chapter to the area's history of mysterious events, drawing even more attention to the Borrego Triangle.

Borrego Springs has long been a hotspot for curious and unexplained happenings, drawing researchers and fans of the paranormal. "Skinwalker Ranch," a show dedicated to investigating such mysteries, recently filmed an episode near the Divine Desert Destination property. This highlights the fascinating nature of the Borrego Triangle even more.

The company offers a 2080-square-foot property at De Anza Golf and Country Club. It features a private hot tub and stunning views of the nearby mountains, pool, and golf course. Guests can enjoy the peace and mystery of the area while taking advantage of modern comforts and spacious living areas. The property includes two large bedrooms, a fully equipped kitchen, and an open living area decorated with carefully chosen artwork. By booking directly through the company's website, guests get the best rates and personal communication with the owners.

For those interested, the company's website provides an easy and secure way to book directly. This ensures that guests receive exclusive deals with no third-party charges. Visitors can also explore the property through a virtual tour on the company's website. This feature offers a complete view of the property and its amenities. Additionally, an availability checker helps guests plan their stay effectively. Reviews from former guests offer valuable insights into the level of service provided by Divine Desert Destination.

Adding to the draw is the documentary "Shadows in the Desert: High Strangeness in the Borrego Triangle." This film explores local legends and reported paranormal events, such as sightings of Sasquatch, ghost stories, and UFO encounters. Created by the producers of the "Monsters Among Us" and "Blurry Photos" podcasts, the documentary aims to dig deeper into these mysteries. It can be rented on Amazon Prime and Netflix.

Toni Locke, one of the owners of Divine Desert Destination, shared her thoughts on these exciting developments: "Interest in Borrego Springs has really picked up with the release of the documentary and the recent 'Skinwalker Ranch' episode. We're thrilled to see more people drawn to the unique and interesting aspects of this area."

The Borrego Triangle's mix of natural beauty and mystery makes it a fascinating destination for anyone looking for both relaxation and a bit of adventure. The area's reputation for paranormal activity adds an extra layer of excitement for visitors.

"The Borrego Triangle has always been a place of wonder," said Toni Locke. "Our guests can relax in the desert tranquility while discovering the rich history and folklore of the area. We're proud to offer a luxurious retreat that matches the unique character of Borrego Springs."

Divine Desert Destination continues to offer first-class vacation rentals in Borrego Springs. This allows visitors to enjoy the area's natural beauty and mysterious charm. The company is dedicated to making sure guests have memorable stays by offering direct booking, virtual tours, and a simple availability checker. Reading reviews from satisfied guests can give new visitors confidence in the high-quality service they can expect.

As interest in the paranormal grows in the Borrego Triangle, thanks to recent media features, Divine Desert Destination shines as an ideal place to stay. Guests can relax in the comfort of the vacation rental Borrego Springs while possibly experiencing the area's mysteries firsthand.

Besides the "Skinwalker Ranch" episode and the "Shadows in the Desert" documentary, Borrego Springs offers many other attractions and stories. These include the legend of the Borrego Sandman, ghost stories from the Anza-Borrego Desert, and various local events and businesses that enhance the visitor experience.

Divine Desert Destination remains committed to offering exceptional vacation rentals in a region that never fails to captivate the imaginations of its visitors. With each new discovery, Borrego Springs strengthens its status as a must-visit spot for travelers attracted to natural beauty and otherworldly intrigue.

For more information, visit the Divine Desert Destination website.

###

For more information about Divine Desert Destination, contact the company here: Divine Desert Destination Toni Locke (619) 757-4564 tonialocke@gmail.com Borrego Springs, California

Divine Desert Destination

Divine Desert Destination is located in Borrego Springs, California, and offers a spectacular 2080 sqft. desert retreat, ideal for relaxation and enjoyment of the natural surroundings.

Website: <https://www.divinedesertdestination.com/>

Email: tonialocke@gmail.com

Phone: (619) 757-4564

