

Sunday School Store Launches Affordable Back To School Bundle: 52-Week Bible Curriculum for Kids

July 16, 2024

Sellersburg, Indiana - July 16, 2024 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

The Sunday School Store has launched a new "Back to School Bundle," offering a comprehensive Bible curriculum for children. This bundle supports modern Sunday School needs, providing a complete set of lessons aimed at kids aged 6-12.

The bundle includes lesson plans for 52 weeks, covering the entire 2024-2025 school year. While the curriculum's themes are tailored for the Back-To-School season, they are flexible enough to be used year-round. The lessons are easy to follow, allowing Sunday School teachers to deliver engaging and meaningful content without the need for extensive preparation. This 52-Week Curriculum covers a wide range of biblical stories and teachings, making it a valuable resource for churches.

"The Back-To-School Bundle was developed to address the needs of contemporary children's ministries," said Tony Kummer, editor at The Sunday School Store. "We wanted to create a resource that is easy for teachers to use and engaging for kids. Our goal is to make Bible learning both fun and meaningful."

The curriculum is compatible with any Bible translation, including NIV, KJV, and ESV, making it versatile for various church settings. It includes learning activities such as games, crafts, and coloring pages to keep children interested and involved.

Additionally, the new curriculum offers significant cost savings for churches. Originally priced at $605, the bundle is now available for $97, providing high-quality lessons at an affordable price. This reduced cost aims to make top-tier educational materials accessible for all churches, regardless of their budget size.

The Sunday School Store is dedicated to supporting children's ministries with diverse educational resources. Beyond the 52-Week Curriculum, the store offers free downloadable resources like lesson plans, activity sheets, and coloring pages. These materials can supplement existing curricula or serve as stand-alone activities, offering flexibility for ministries with varied needs.

Kummer added, "Our focus has always been to equip teachers with the best resources available. By offering the Back-To-School Bundle at a reduced price, we're making it easier for churches to provide high-quality education without straining their budgets."

The newly released curriculum is available for instant PDF download, which simplifies access and implementation. Churches can immediately incorporate these materials into their programs, reducing delays commonly associated with shipping physical products.

For churches seeking specialized curriculum, The Sunday School Store provides a variety of other resources. These include the Easter Curriculum, focusing on the significance of Easter, and the Gospel Jesus Curriculum, centered on the teachings of Jesus. Each curriculum is designed with care and attention to detail, ensuring that every lesson is both educational and captivating.

The company also offers several curriculum bundles, such as the "Ultimate Toddler Bundle," which meets the educational needs of younger children. These bundles are tailored to different age groups and themes, providing comprehensive resources for anyone in children's ministry. The Back to School Bundle includes 52 Lessons for Sunday School, covering the full academic year.

To serve a global audience, The Sunday School Store adjusts prices to local currencies and provides regionally relevant content. This helps ensure that churches worldwide have access to quality educational materials that fit their context.

The Sunday School Store continues to innovate and expand its offerings with regular new releases, keeping their materials fresh and relevant. As a trusted provider of religious education for children, the company aims to deliver engaging, high-quality content for children's ministries everywhere. By offering 52 Lessons for Sunday School and other versatile resources, they help churches around the world fulfill their educational missions.
