January 15, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Atco, New Jersey online marketing business On Time Website Traffic has recently started offering a new marketing tool. They describe it as 'social media with a twist of video' and it is already proving to be very popular. This is due to the fact that the video streaming feature helps to bring in high traffic leads. They encourage everyone to see quick video about the new service.

Marcus Brown and project team of On Time Website Traffic says: "Social media, particularly Facebook and video joining forces is a fantastic new movement and we're happy to be a part of it. We can ensure our clients get much higher levels of traffic much more quickly thanks to this new service. We're happy to see that people are benefiting from it already."

The company has been operating for quite some time and has a team of experts for online marketing and SEO on board. They have provided their services to a large number of different clients, and they guarantee the effectiveness of their work. Additionally, they are committed to staying abreast of new developments within the world of online marketing, so that they can always offer the best to their customers. Making sure social media and video join forces is just the latest in their long line of offerings.

The services that the company has provided are incredibly popular. Virtually every review they have received is positive and highlights some of the particular expertise their staff has. "I have to say, I'm very very impressed," says Gail P. "It was worth the wait - the company was snowed under with orders and it's understandable. Awesome work, whoever did the research is smart. I got it at a great price, but it's worth the full price - no question about it."

The new service is proving to be incredibly popular, as are all the services offered by On Time Website Traffic. They pride themselves on their original, out of the box way of dealing with their clients' needs, something that has earned them a very good reputation. They are one of the few that offer a specific Facebook video marketing service at present.
