Flooring Masters Kent Unveils New Website to Elevate Customer Experience

July 17, 2024

Tonbridge and Malling, England - July 17, 2024 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Flooring Masters Kent announces the launch of their new website, designed to offer detailed information about their wide range of flooring solutions. The goal of this digital platform is to enhance the customer experience by providing detailed descriptions of different flooring options, services, and easy access to free consultations and estimates.

The website comes with an intuitive design, making navigation simple for users. Visitors can explore various types of flooring offered by Flooring Masters Kent, including residential, commercial, wood, carpet, vinyl, luxury vinyl tile (LVT), laminate, linoleum, resin, concrete, stone, metal, and safety flooring. The site also features information on floor tiles, sanding, repair, installation, and restoration services.

"We have always been dedicated to providing quality flooring solutions, and our new website reflects this commitment," said Oliver Andrews, CEO of Flooring Masters Kent. "We want our customers to have all the information they need at their fingertips, making it simpler for them to make informed decisions about their flooring needs."

A key feature of the new website is a section where customers can schedule free consultations. This service helps clients plan and budget for their flooring projects by offering expert advice tailored to their specific needs.

The site's resource center is another valuable addition. It includes articles and guides on choosing the right flooring, maintenance tips, and the latest trends in flooring design. There's also a comprehensive FAQ section to answer common questions, making the user experience even better. For more information on the wide range of flooring options and services, visit their website.

Flooring Masters Kent's commitment to keeping floors in perfect condition extends to their online platform. The site allows users to request maintenance services such as cleaning, refinishing, and repairs. This feature shows the company's dedication to long-term customer satisfaction and floor care.

The commercial offerings section of the new website has been expanded, showcasing tailored installations designed for durability and aesthetics in business settings. Flooring Masters Kent aims to create polished and inviting workspaces, ensuring that commercial clients can browse through a variety of flooring solutions that suit their needs. This section highlights the company's expertise in handling large-scale commercial projects with the same precision as residential ones.

The "Our Work" gallery section is another important addition. This section displays high-quality images of completed projects, so potential customers can see the craftsmanship and variety of flooring options. Each project is presented with descriptions detailing the materials and techniques used, giving visitors a clear idea of what to expect.

Flooring Masters Kent also focuses on eco-friendly options like linoleum flooring. Information on these sustainable choices is easily accessible, catering to environmentally conscious customers looking for durable and stylish solutions. The company's services include both installation and design options, ensuring a comprehensive approach to eco-friendly flooring.

Oliver Andrews added, "The launch of our new website marks an exciting chapter for us. We believe that providing a seamless online experience is crucial, and we are excited for our customers to explore the new site and take advantage of the comprehensive resources we have made available."

The launch of the new website comes at a time when many customers prefer to do their research online before making purchasing decisions. It caters to this trend by offering a user-friendly interface and detailed content to help clients understand the nuances of each flooring option and service.

Flooring Masters Kent has always focused on offering quality and variety. Their new website is a testament to this belief. It serves as a valuable tool for customers, providing detailed insights into the extensive range of flooring solutions available.
