January 08, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

SoulsticeWellness.com has recently achieved a new milestone by obtaining one of the highest ranking spots for the search term "Best Massage Denver." This propelled their already well-known service to even greater heights. With a bigger market reach, more people will come to know about their services and its benefits.

Recent studies now shed light on the benefits of massage therapy for health care and health maintenance. Although massage therapy has been part and parcel to hospital care, it was not until recently that it has been widely accepted as a form of medical treatment and surgical rehabilitation. Over the years many people have turned to massage therapy for their cumulative benefits not only in alleviating pain but also in overall wellness.

SoulsticeWellness.com has been one of the top providers of Peri-Operative Therapy and elite-level Health Maintenance Massage Therapy services. On top of their services that promote healing and rehabilitation, their massage therapy services also specializes in relieving post-operative depression and anxiety, improving sleep, and increasing circulation, which assists the body in repairing itself after trauma.

Known to be the Best Massage Denver, their licensed skilled therapists are educated with a variety of soft tissue techniques to meet specific client needs. Since its inception in 2004 by Founders Ann Brooks and Kent Lemburg, SoulsticeWellness.com has been following their goal to provide high-quality Health Maintenance Massage Therapy for patients who are in need of relief from pain and a new start on life after an accident or physical trauma. They are also members of the American Massage Therapy Association (AMTA), Associated Bodywork and Massage Professionals, and the National Certification Board for Therapeutic Massage and Bodywork (NCBTMB).

According to SoulsticeWellness.com, "Soulstice, Ltd. therapists are highly-trained and possess decades of combined experience in the medical massage therapy field. The priority at Soulstice is to provide each client with a unique support system of care. Through skillful bodywork and mindful client education, Soulstice therapists are committed to bringing people back into wellness and health."

At SoulsticeWellness.com, their team of medical therapists can create a customized treatment plan that is designed to promote faster recovery depending on an individual's injury. For a better understanding of their massage therapy services, interested individuals can book an appointment with them where their therapists can discuss what their goals are and provide them with the right support and self-care options that best fits their needs.
