

My Tierra

Restaurant

My Tierra Restaurant Voted Best Restaurant in Pembroke Pines

January 07, 2016

January 07, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

My Tierra Restaurant, located in Pembroke Pines, FL, recently received an award as the best Colombian restaurant in Pembroke Pines. The restaurant is famous for its diverse menu with popular dishes from many Latin countries including Peru, Colombia, Venezuela, Mexico, Dominican Republic, Puerto Rico, and Cuba. The restaurant serves delicious plates but is also getting popular with local South Broward residents for its great atmosphere while you eat. When recently questioned, a few customers said that they felt no reservation in saying that it is the best restaurant in Pembroke Pines. These types of reviews from customers is why they seem to be attracting many locals from the South Broward and North Miami Dade County areas to the restaurant. Full details about the restaurant can be found at <http://mytierrarestaurant.com/>.

"In a market such as South Florida, it is important to have a variety of dishes that reflect the wide array of its diverse cultures," says Diana Carratala, director of Marketing for My Tierra Restaurant. "South Florida is not only a very large Hispanic market, but more importantly is a very diverse. We take much pride in offering our clients popular dishes reflecting their cultures. We believe in traditions and it is important for us to reflect that in our dishes."

These dishes at My Tierra Restaurant are receiving a big thumbs up from the customers as reflected in <https://plus.google.com/105118489231795390753/about> and the local community are going for themselves to see exactly what all the chatter and buzz is about. They offer daily specials on an already great priced menu as a way to encourage the customers to step outside of their routine and try to experience something new every time they come.

?The food is amazing and the atmosphere is even better,? says Jose Penabad, a Miami resident that drives 30 minutes to come enjoy the great dishes. ?We drive up from South Miami because the food is definitely worth the drive, so I make it a habit and do our biweekly family night dinners at My Tierra.?

South Florida is a very large Hispanic market but it seems that the locals that are looking for the best Mexican food, the best Venezuelan food, or the best Peruvian restaurant in Pembroke Pines can simply come and get all of their favorites under one roof. My Tierra offers great food from many different cultures that is sure to please the taste of any customers seeking to get them all in one location.

###

For more information about My Tierra Restaurant, contact the company here: My Tierra Restaurant Diana Carratala (954) 368-0644 diana@mytierrarestaurant.com 8300 Pines Blvd Pembroke Pines, FL. 33024

My Tierra Restaurant

The exquisite flavor of Latin American food fused together to create one of a kind dishes. Colombian, Mexican, Dominican, Peruvian, Puerto Rican, Venezuelan, and American food. Party venue and catering services available.

Website: <https://mytierrarestaurant.com/>

Email: diana@mytierrarestaurant.com

Phone: (954) 368-0644

