August 05, 2024

Fort Walton Beach, Florida - August 05, 2024 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Attorneys Jay Patel and Tim Shaw recently celebrated a significant triumph in a criminal case. Haley Dianne Haire, who faced charges of Second-Degree Murder, saw all charges dropped after a favorable Stand Your Ground Immunity hearing.

"Our team performed a thorough review of the evidence and deposed all key witnesses. This careful preparation allowed us to present our client's side clearly and accurately," said Jay Patel.

Following a detailed review of the events leading up to the charges, a Stand Your Ground Immunity motion was filed. The court reviewed the evidence and concluded that the prosecution did not provide enough proof to overcome the self-defense claim.

"This case illustrates the important role of the Stand Your Ground law in protecting those who act in self-defense," said Patel. "The outcome underscores that justice is served through a diligent examination of the facts," added attorney Tim Shaw.
