

Harmony & Healing Brings Music to Martinez VA Hospital, Proving Non-Profits Can Heal Through Melody

August 29, 2024

San Ramon, California - August 29, 2024 -
Harmony & Healing has started Zoom visits with the Martinez VA Hospital to bring the healing power of music to veterans. This program aims to support the emotional and mental well-being of veterans through personalized music sessions. Harmony & Healing strives to offer comfort and relief to veterans dealing with various health challenges.

Former BOSTON guitarist, David Victor the founder of Harmony & Healing, said, "We are honored to begin this new chapter with Martinez VA Hospital. Our goal is to use music to provide comfort and support for those who have served our country." The Zoom sessions will be customized to meet each patient's unique needs, creating a healing environment. To learn more about the organization and its mission, visit their website.

The organization has seen the benefits of music in different healthcare settings, including their ongoing work at the George Mark Children's House Pediatric Hospice. These experiences highlight the value of music in therapeutic settings. For more details on their work, visit https://www.harmonyandhealing.org/george-mark-childrens-house-pediatric-hospice/.

Music's impact on healing is well-known, influencing both mental and physical health. Music therapy can help reduce stress, anxiety, and pain, promoting overall well-being. Harmony & Healing's initiative at the Martinez VA Hospital shows their commitment to these benefits for veterans.

Victor shared, "Music has a profound ability to heal. Our collaboration with Martinez VA Hospital reflects our dedication to using music as a therapeutic tool." The program is designed to meet veterans' specific preferences and needs, ensuring a personal approach to care.

Beyond the Martinez VA Hospital, Harmony & Healing continues to broaden its reach and impact. By integrating music into different healthcare settings, they aim to improve patient care and support recovery. Their efforts underscore the importance of innovative therapeutic methods in modern healthcare.
