

Impeachment Inquiry of Attorney General Bob Ferguson Launched by US Congressman Candidate Cody Hart

August 07, 2024

Edison, Washington - August 07, 2024 -

Cody Hart, a primary candidate for Washington State's 39th Congressional District, has officially started an impeachment inquiry against Washington State Attorney General Bob Ferguson. Lieutenant Governor Denny Heck is currently reviewing the petition. If approved, it could lead to a special legislative session to address the charges.

The impeachment inquiry includes several key points: 1. According to the state constitution, Lieutenant Governor Denny Heck must act as governor and call for a special session to discuss the impeachment inquiry against Bob Ferguson. 2. The basis for the inquiry is a State Superior Court judgment against Ferguson for malfeasance. 3. If the impeachment is successful, it would be unprecedented in Washington State history, removing an Attorney General and active gubernatorial candidate from office and disqualifying him during an election period. 4. If the Washington State Legislature votes to impeach, Ferguson would be permanently banned from holding any public office in the state.

Cody Hart highlighted the importance of this action, saying, "This impeachment inquiry is about upholding the integrity of our state's highest offices. We must ensure that our leaders are held accountable to the law and to the people they serve."

Cody Hart's campaign covers various initiatives like economic reform, border security, election integrity, and gun rights. However, government accountability is a key issue for Hart in his congressional run. His stance on this is clearly shown by his actions with this impeachment inquiry.

Hart, who is a civil engineer and Navy veteran, wants to bring transparency and accountability to the government. His campaign focuses on a range of critical issues from economic concerns to veterans' rights. Addressing government corruption is central to his mission, and this latest action reflects his broader goals. As detailed on his campaign's website, Cody Hart for Government Accountability, he aims to fix the economy by cutting government waste and boosting economic reform.

"I believe in a government that serves its people effectively and justly," said Cody Hart. "Public office is a position of trust, and when that trust is broken, it undermines the very foundation of our democracy."
