

Lucky Buys Junk Cars LLC Expands to Offer Cash for Junk Cars Across St. Louis Region and Parts of Illinois

August 08, 2024

August 08, 2024 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Lucky Buys Junk Cars LLC has expanded its service area to cover over 50 miles around the St. Louis region, now reaching into parts of Illinois. This expansion brings their popular services—including instant quotes, car pickup, and immediate cash payment—to more customers who need to get rid of their old or junk cars.

Walter Walls, the owner of Lucky Buys Junk Cars LLC, said, "We are committed to making the process of selling junk cars as easy and convenient as possible for our customers. With our expanded service area, even more people can benefit from our quick and hassle-free car removal services and turn their old vehicles into cash."

Lucky Buys Junk Cars LLC offers a range of services that make selling a junk car simple. They give instant cash offers over the phone, allowing customers to quickly get a quote for their vehicle. Just call with the details of your car, and you'll receive an offer in minutes. This way, everything is clear and convenient for those wanting to sell their junk cars. For more details on receiving an instant quote, customers can visit the company's service page on instant quotes.

When a customer agrees to the offer, Lucky Buys Junk Cars arranges a pickup time that works for them. The team will go to the customer's location and handle all the paperwork. This means customers don't have to travel, making the process hassle-free. There are no extra costs for the pickup, adding another layer of convenience. More information on car pickup can be found on their car pickup service page.

One highlight of the company's service is immediate cash payment. Customers get their money right when the car is picked up, ensuring a smooth transaction. Lucky Buys Junk Cars prioritizes fair, upfront payments, giving customers certainty and confidence every step of the way. Details on immediate cash payment can be found on their immediate cash payment page.

Besides buying cars with titles, Lucky Buys Junk Cars also buys cars without titles. Although dealing with titleless cars can be tricky due to local regulations, the company's expertise ensures everything goes smoothly and legally. They guide customers through the process, so not having a title doesn't stop them from getting cash for their old cars. Selling a car without a title is now simpler and more straightforward for people in the expanded service area. More information on this service is available on the page about selling cars without a title.

The company is also known for its junk car removal services. They pay top-tier cash for junk cars and assess each vehicle to offer the best value, regardless of its condition. This thorough approach ensures customers always get a fair deal while removing an unwanted vehicle from their property. For more details on their junk car removal services, visit the junk car removal page.

The expansion aims to offer cash for junk cars in St. Louis and surrounding areas, including East St. Louis. This move shows the company's dedication to serving a larger customer base and bringing their sought-after services to more communities.

"We've always aimed to deliver the best possible experience to our customers," said Walter Walls. "Expanding our service area means we can reach even more people who need a simple and reliable way to dispose of their junk cars. We're excited to bring our services to a broader audience."

People in the new service areas can get free quotes by contacting Lucky Buys Junk Cars LLC through their website or by phone. The company's team is ready to help with any questions and provide prompt service to meet the needs of new and existing customers. The easy-to-use contact form on the website requires just a few details, making it simple for customers to start the process and Get free quote quickly.

Lucky Buys Junk Cars LLC continues to focus on efficiency, customer care, and great service. With the new service area, the company looks forward to helping more people turn their unwanted vehicles into cash quickly and easily. This expansion shows the company's commitment to serving the community and ensuring every customer's satisfaction.
