A Comprehensive Local Network Throughout the UK is Essential for Expats Moving Abroad

September 20, 2024

London, England - September 20, 2024 -
PSS International Removals has improved its comprehensive network throughout the UK, making it easier for customers to access overseas removals from the UK. This move aims to help customers find a nearby international removal service more easily and efficiently.

The company has strategically placed local branches in major cities, including London and Wigan. This strategy means more customers can easily benefit from its experience in international removals. PSS wants to simplify the often challenging process of moving abroad by offering localised support closer to home.

Liam Witham, CEO of PSS International Removals, said, "We understand the stress involved in relocating internationally. By offering local offices in Croydon and Wigan, we can offer more personalised and accessible support to our customers. This approach allows us to maintain high standards of service while meeting the unique needs of each location."

Being closer to customers also helps PSS manage logistics more effectively, ensuring smoother coordination and timely delivery of belongings to new destinations.

Witham continued, "Our goal is to reduce the challenges associated with international relocations. By having offices in key areas across the UK, we can offer a more hands-on approach, ensuring each customer receives the attention and support they need."

PSS International Removals specialises in overseas removals from the UK, handling anything from single-item shipments to whole household moves. To ease the burden on customers during their relocation, they offer services such as packing, storage, and customs clearance. The company's network of local offices helps provide seamless door-to-door services, making the international move process smooth.

For customers needing extensive international shipping services, PSS International Removals handles all aspects of the shipping process, including customs documentation and clearance. Whether it's international box shipping for personal belongings or international car shipping to relocate vehicles, PSS ensures comprehensive and reliable solutions.

PSS International Removals invites anyone planning a move overseas to visit its website to receive a quote and start the process of moving abroad.
