January 11, 2016

January 11, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Fendrick & Morgan, LLC, a law firm in Voorhees Township, NJ, has announced that Douglas Fendrick, Esquire, CPA and CELA, will be speaking to NAIFA South Jersey on January 20th, 2016 at 8:30am at Laurel Creek Country Club in Moorestown. Mr. Fendrick's talk will discuss recent changes in the areas of Estate Planning and Elder Law. Mr. Fendrick will also provide cutting edge planning techniques to save taxes and protect assets in the event a loved one requires long term care. Continuing Education credits will be offered to those financial planning professionals who are attending.

Douglas A. Fendrick, Esq., founder of the firm offering estate planning NJ services, says: "In the event a family member requires estate planning it is imperative that you meet with an Accredited Estate Planning Attorney whose practice concentrates in estate and tax planning. Accredited Estate Planning Specialists are designated through the American Bar Association. As an Accredited Estate Planning Attorney, I am committed through certification to maintaining and improving my proficiency, with continual practice and continuing legal education. It validates my specialty to handle issues that affect Senior Citizens."

The company encourages people who are interested in the event to visit the About Us page through <https://www.facebook.com/FendrickMorganLaw/>. This will provide an opportunity to learn more about the particular areas of expertise that Fendrick & Morgan, LLC is involved in and Mr. Fendrick will be speaking about at the event itself. It is also an opportunity to remain up to date with other industry news and to get involved in discussions around estate planning and law.

The work completed by the estate planning professionals has been very positively received by their many clients, who complement them on their kindness and know-how on pertinent issues relating to their specific cases. The business feels that besides being savvy and kind, it is equally important for attorneys to be highly trained and educated, and committed to their continuous professional development. It is also for this reason that they were very pleased to be able to have Mr. Fendrick speak at the NAIFA South Jersey event, which provides continuous education credits to others.

Those who are interested are encouraged to learn more through the company's website.
