

Keathley Landscaping Revolutionizes Landscape Lighting Services in Wylie, TX

August 14, 2024

GARLAND, TX - August 14, 2024 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Keathley Landscaping is excited to announce the expansion of its services in Wylie, Texas. The company, known for its extensive landscaping solutions, now offers advanced features in both landscape lighting and sod installation for residents in Wylie and nearby areas like Garland and Plano.

Since 2002, Keathley Landscaping has built a strong reputation in the industry. They provide a wide range of services, including landscape design and construction, and patio and fence installations. Now, with the addition of customized outdoor lighting and professional sod installation, homeowners can enhance the beauty and functionality of their yards even more.

The landscape lighting services from Keathley Landscaping focus on creating outdoor spaces that are both beautiful and practical. Residents have many options to choose from, such as patio and arbor lighting, moon lighting, tree lighting, outdoor kitchen lighting, and pathway lights. The installations use energy-efficient bulbs, LED technology, and smart lighting controls. These are designed to last through extreme weather with minimal upkeep.

Logan Keathley, CEO of Keathley Landscaping, expressed his excitement about the new services. "Our team is thrilled to bring advanced landscape lighting to the people of Wylie and the surrounding areas. These new services will allow homeowners to enjoy their outdoor spaces well into the evening, with a design that suits any mood or occasion."

A standout feature is the landscape lighting Wylie, which transforms gardens and yards into beautifully illuminated spaces. Their team places each light fixture strategically to highlight the natural beauty of the landscape, providing both security and ambiance.

The new sod installation services in Wylie are another valuable addition. Whether residents want to refresh their lawns or lay new ones, Keathley Landscaping promises top-quality service to turn yards into lush green spaces. They use various types of grass, like St. Augustine, Zoysia, and Bermuda, to match different yard conditions and client preferences.

"Our new sod installation service is designed to help homeowners achieve the lawn of their dreams quickly and efficiently," said Logan Keathley. "We understand the importance of having a beautiful, healthy yard and are committed to providing the best quality sod and installation techniques to ensure customer satisfaction."

Residents in Wylie, Garland, Plano, and nearby areas can now benefit from these specialized services to enhance the look and use of their outdoor spaces. The company aims to deliver high-quality landscaping solutions that meet the growing needs and preferences of its clients. This also includes outdoor lighting Wylie services, offering custom lighting designs tailored to each home's unique landscape.

Additionally, Keathley Landscaping continues to offer its traditional services. This includes landscape design and construction, patio and fence installations, lawn care and maintenance, stonework, flowerbeds, and more. The company remains committed to quality and customer satisfaction.

Serving a wide area that includes Dallas, Garland, Wylie, Plano, and other surrounding regions, Keathley Landscaping has earned numerous positive testimonials from happy clients over the years, thanks to their customer-focused approach.
