September 03, 2024 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Pax & Beneficia Coffee - Plano is excited to introduce their latest signature coffee drink, the Sunshine in a Cup Lavender Latte. This new drink blends espresso, steamed milk, and house-made lavender syrup, aiming to offer a refreshing and unique flavor. The launch reflects Pax & Beneficia Coffee's dedication to providing inventive and high-quality coffee experiences. For more details on this exciting new addition, visit their website at Pax & Beneficia Coffee.

Pax & Beneficia Coffee, a well-loved coffee shop in Plano, has a loyal customer base thanks to its diverse menu. They offer everything from traditional espresso drinks, macchiatos, cortados, and cappuccinos, to unique blends like the Trinity Latte and the Zahr Latte. For those who don't drink coffee, they serve ceremonial grade matcha with milk. Every drink can be personalized with their handcrafted syrups, adding a special touch to each order.

"We are always inspired by our customers' love for unique coffee experiences. The introduction of the Sunshine in a Cup Lavender Latte is our way of expanding our menu while maintaining the high standards our patrons have come to expect," said Corey Stephens, a representative from Pax & Beneficia Coffee.

In addition to their coffee and drinks, Pax & Beneficia Coffee maintains a blog. This blog covers a variety of topics, providing insights into their coffee-making process, tips for brewing coffee at home, and information about the Plano area. It's a great resource for anyone interested in learning more about coffee culture.

Pax & Beneficia Coffee has locations in Las Colinas, Downtown Fort Worth, Grapevine, and Victory Park, besides their Plano location. This expansion shows the growing popularity and reach of their coffee offerings. Customers can also place orders online, making it convenient to pick up their purchases at their preferred location.
