Top Choice for Abdominoplasty in Cyprus: European Institute of Plastic Surgery Offers Precision Care

August 28, 2024

Nicosia, Cyprus - August 28, 2024 -
Dr. Demetris Stavrou, a well-regarded plastic surgeon, leads the European Institute of Plastic Surgery (EIPS). Known for offering a wide range of aesthetic and reconstructive procedures, the clinic is now putting more emphasis on its abdominoplasty services, commonly referred to as tummy tucks.

Abdominoplasty is a procedure focused on removing extra skin and fat to make the abdomen firmer. Dr. Stavrou offers several types of abdominoplasty, each tailored to meet the specific needs of patients. To learn more about the different steps involved and the various types of tummy tucks available, visit: https://eips.com/procedures/abdominoplasty/.

The European Institute of Plastic Surgery is known for providing high-quality care through a comprehensive range of cosmetic services. Their body surgery options include procedures like body contouring and liposuction, designed to sculpt and tone the body. The team at EIPS is committed to using the latest techniques to achieve the best results for each patient. Their broad scope of services is detailed on the Plastic Surgery Cyprus website.

"Our approach to abdominoplasty at EIPS focuses on precision and patient satisfaction," said Dr. Demetris Stavrou. "We understand that a procedure like this can greatly improve not just physical appearance but also a person's confidence and comfort."

Besides abdominoplasty, the clinic offers specialized procedures in other areas such as breast surgery, facial surgery, skin treatment, and hair removal. Breast surgeries include augmentation, lifts, reductions, and reconstruction, aiming to improve size, shape, and symmetry. Facial surgeries like rhinoplasties and facelifts work to rejuvenate appearances and correct irregularities.

Dr. Stavrou's expertise isn't limited to surgery; he also places a high value on patient education and support. EIPS provides educational videos and flexible payment options to make sure patients understand their procedures and financing. The clinic's multilingual website, available in English, Greek, Turkish, and Russian, caters to a diverse array of international clients.

"Transparency and communication are key to our patient care philosophy," added Dr. Stavrou. "We believe in giving patients the knowledge they need to make informed decisions about their treatments."

EIPS operates clinics in multiple locations including Nicosia and Limassol in Cyprus, along with Sliema and Athens. Each location is equipped with modern facilities to provide a comfortable surgical experience. Dr. Stavrou and his team are dedicated to maintaining high standards of patient care at all their clinics.

EIPS is also very active on social media, sharing updates, patient testimonials, and educational content. Those interested can follow their work on the EIPS Instagram Page.

For those thinking about getting a tummy tuck or abdominoplasty in Cyprus, visiting the EIPS website will provide detailed information about the procedure and the different types of abdominoplasty offered. The clinic's dedication to patient support and advanced surgical techniques makes it a top choice for both aesthetic and reconstructive surgery.

Patients can book appointments easily through various options available on the EIPS website. The clinic emphasizes accessibility and convenience with its strong online presence on platforms like Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, YouTube, and Pinterest.
