Leading Construction Law Firm Opens Fourth Texas Location
The Cromeens Law Firm launches new office in Dallas

Dallas, Texas - (September 4, 2024) - The Cromeens Law Firm, a construction law practice headquartered in Houston, is pleased to announce its expansion into Dallas. Located at 6600 Chase Oaks Blvd. Suite 150, this is the firm?s fourth location in Texas and the third new location this year, following the recent launches in New Orleans and Los Angeles.

With the opening of its Dallas office, The Cromeens Law Firm continues to grow its presence in Texas, emphasizing its commitment to delivering top-tier legal services to the construction industry across the state. The new Dallas location is designed to replicate the excellence of the firm's existing offices, focusing on tailored legal solutions for the local community.

"Opening a new location in Texas signifies more than just growth; it highlights our commitment to exceptional legal services," noted Karalynn Cromeens, Owner and Managing Partner. "We?re thrilled to introduce The Cromeens Law Firm to Dallas, our fourth Texas office, and look forward to building strong connections with the Dallas construction community."

Founded in 2006 by Karalynn Cromeens, The Cromeens Law Firm has brick-and-mortar locations in Houston, Austin, San Antonio, Los Angeles, and New Orleans. The firm specializes in construction, real estate law, business, and contract disputes. It offers both English and Spanish remote services for clients outside of Texas.
